Cleese does U-turn with BBC series

COMEDY legend John Cleese is to star in his first BBC sitcom since Fawlty Towers ended four decades ago.

The Monty Python star will appear with Alison Steadman in six-part series Edith after vowing to never work with the BBC again.

Cleese, 77 (above), said: "These are the most enjoyable scripts I've been sent in the last 100 years.

"It will be nice to work with Alison again – since we joined forces in Clockwise all that time ago."

Cleese has frequently criticised the Beeb and has not held the lead spot in one of its shows since Fawlty Towers ended in 1979.

In November 2015, he told ShortList mag: "There's no way I want to work in TV – especially at the BBC.

"I have a nasty feeling a large proportion of the commissioning editors have no idea what they're doing."

Man charged over woman's murder

A MAN was last night charged with the murder of a 29-year-old woman.

Vikki Louise Hull was pronounced dead at hospital on Sunday morning after she was found by emergency services at a house in Speke, Liverpool, just after 3am.

Merseyside Police said the cause of death was strangulation.

Mark Geoffrey Mahoney, 31, also of Speke, was charged with her murder yesterday.

A force spokesman said Mr Mahoney was being kept in custody, with no date confirmed for a court appearance.

Booty-ful Megan!

DID you guess that the owner of the pert booty on today's front page belongs to TOWIE babe Megan McKenna?

The Celebrity Big Brother stunna brushed off her relationship troubles by cheekily flashing her bum in this skimpy jumper dress.

And the 24-year-old reality TV beauty showed off her peachy derriere in the short green frock as she enjoyed a night out in trendy Camden Town recently.

One onlooker said: "You could crack walnuts with those cheeks!'

WORRIED: Putin (below) thinks Trump (right) will attack North Korea

Trump warns Putin AND China as world teeters on brink of war

YANK president Donald Trump has told Russia and China that they are either 'with' the US over Syria and North Korea or 'against' them.

And he's ready to solve both problems unilaterally.

Trump tweeted that "North Korea is looking for trouble", insisting that if China "does not decide to help", then the US "will solve the problem without them".

The US President wrote the message on Twitter after revealing he had urged his Chinese counterpart Xi Jinping to pressure Pyongyang into stopping its nuclear programme.

By JOSH LEDERMAN
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Attack

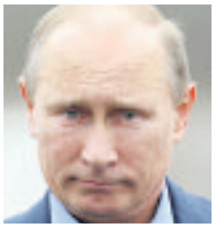
His warning came as Russia admitted it is "extremely worried" the US will attack Kim Jong-un after North Korea warned it has US bases "in its nuclear sights".

Pyongyang had earlier threatened "catastrophic consequences" after Trump sent an armada of US warships to the Korean Peninsula.

At the same time, China moved 150,000 troops to its border to deal with a possible influx of North Korean refugees amid fears Trump may strike Kim Jong-un following the surprise US missile attack on Syria last week.

It comes as G7 nations agreed Syrian president Bashar al-Assad must step down as part of any peace solution in the war-torn country and also as US Secretary of State Rex Tillerson declared it was clear the "reign of the Assad family is coming to an end".

The Pentagon said on Saturday night that the USS Carl Vinson aircraft carrier and its battle group had been sent to the region for US-South Korea war games.



A spokesman for North Korea's foreign ministry last night said: "This goes to prove that the U.S. reckless moves for invading the DPRK have reached a serious phase.

"The DPRK is ready to react to any mode of war desired by the U.S."

Rex Tillerson added that it was unclear whether Russia had failed to take seriously its obligation to rid Syria of chemical weapons or had merely been incompetent, but he said the distinction "doesn't much matter to the dead".

He said: "We cannot let this happen again.

Suffering

"We want to relieve the suffering of the Syrian people. Russia can be a part of that future and play an important role.

"Or Russia can maintain its alliance with this group, which we believe is not going to serve Russia's interests long term."

Since the US launched air strikes against Assad's forces last week, Trump administration officials have offered mixed messages about whether Washington believes Assad must surrender power – and when.

MIGRANT CONFESSES STOCKHOLM KILLINGS

A 39-YEAR-OLD Uzbek man has confessed to ramming a stolen truck into a crowd in Stockholm, killing four people and wounding 15, his lawyer said.

The city's District Court ruled that police could detain Rakhmat Akilov (right) for a month after he admitted in court that he drove the beer truck into a crowd outside an upscale department store in capital on Friday.

Akilov was detained by police hours later and arrested early Saturday. Police have not given a motive for the attack and no extremist group has claimed responsibility.

Police said Akilov was known to have been sympathetic to extremist organisations but that there was nothing to indicate he might plan an attack. His Swedish residency application was rejected last year.

After the court hearing, his lawyer said Akilov is "pleading guilty" to the attack but said he was not allowed to say more about the case.

The four people killed included two Swedes, a Belgian woman and Briton Chris Bevington, 41.

Mr Bevington lived in Stockholm with his family and worked as a director with music streaming service Spotify.

Eight of the 15 injured, two seriously, are still being treated in hospital.

The prosecutor's office said on Tuesday that it will revoke the arrest of a second man police had detained because "the suspicions have weakened" against him.

Poor Ed's Paying Out Loud!

COPYING ROW: Sheeran

LEAVE ME OUT: Cardle

ED Sheeran yesterday reached a deal to end a £16million lawsuit over his 2014 hit song Photograph.

The British music star, 26, was accused of “note-for-note” copying from a track called Amazing, which was released by former X Factor winner Matt Cardle in 2012.

Songwriters Thomas Leonard and Martin Harrington sued the Thinking Out Loud singer, accusing him of “unabashedly taking credit” for their work.

By HAZEL GROVE
news@sundaysport.co.uk

They said Sheeran and his songwriting partner Johnny McDaid, from Snow Patrol, had “copied and exploited, without authorisation or credit, the work of other active, professional songwriters on a breathtaking scale”.

Sued

“This copying is, in many instances, verbatim, note-for-note copying, makes up nearly one half of Photograph, and raises this case to the unusual level of strikingly similar copying,” they said in a complaint lodged in the US in July last year.

Harrington, who has written hits for Kylie Minogue, 5ive and Emma Bunton, sued for damages along with Leonard in excess of $20m dollars (£16m).

An order signed by Judge James Selna at a California court on Monday said the case had been dismissed after an agreement had been reached between the parties.

Details of the settlement have not been disclosed.

Sheeran's single Photograph, from his album x (Multiply), reached number 10 on the US Billboard Hot 100 and number 15 in the UK singles chart in 2014.

Cardle's track Amazing peaked at number 84 in the UK in 2012.

The 2010 X Factor winner was not involved in the lawsuit.

Don't make me call Simon 'Sir'!

BRITAIN'S Got Talent judge David Walliams refuses to refer to his co-star Simon Cowell as SIR.

The 45-year-old Little Britain star said his fellow judge is desperate to be knighted but David can't bear the thought of having to call him by a title.

He said: “Simon definitely thinks he should have a knighthood.

“What he doesn't realise is you have to do something positive. You can't just spread evil and think you'll get one.

“It would be annoying to have to call him 'Sir' Simon.”

The Crown rules!

CLAIRE DRAMA UP FOR 5 GONGS

By COLIN HURST news@sundaysport.co.uk

ACTRESS Claire Foy has said she is "thrilled" that The Crown has been nominated for five awards at this year's TV Baftas.

She has been tipped for a gong for her portrayal of the younger Queen Elizabeth II in the Netflix show's first season, which secured a nomination for best drama series.

Jared Harris, John Lithgow and Vanessa Kirby are featured in the line-up for best supporting actors in the historical drama.

Claire, 32, said: "I'm very honoured to have been nominated for a Bafta and so thrilled that the show has been recognised in so many categories and to share this with Jared, John and Vanessa and all the amazing cast and crew.

"It's especially meaningful because the show is made in the UK with such a wealth of incredible British talent. Very, very excited."

Creator and writer Peter Morgan also celebrated the news.

Giddy

"I am beyond thrilled for The Crown to have been recognised in a year where so much wonderful work has been achieved in British television," he said.

"We are all giddy and delighted."

The popular series based on the earlier years of Britain's Royal Family is up against The Durrells, Happy Valley and War & Peace in the best drama list.

Meanwhile, Claire faces competition in the best actress category from Thirteen's Jodie Comer, NW's Nikki Amuka-Bird and Happy Valley's Sarah Lancashire.

Describing The Crown's success as "wonderful", executive producer Andy Harries said: "It's great to feel the appreciation and support of the UK TV and film industry for our series.

"I am delighted for all our nominees and thrilled about the ongoing domestic and international impact and success of the series."

The full line-up of nominations was announced by actors Andrew Buchan and Michaela Coel during an event at Bafta's central London headquarters on Tuesday morning.

THE Night Manager* star Tom Hiddleston has been snubbed from the nominations at this year's TV Baftas.

Benedict Cumberbatch is up for leading actor for his role in Shakespeare tale The Hollow Crown, alongside Robbie Coltrane for National Treasure, the drama inspired by Operation Yewtree.

Babou Ceesay is up for the award for his role as Damilola Taylor's father in Damilola, Our Loved Boy and Adeel Akhtar for Murdered By My Father, about honour killing.

But Hiddleston (above) co-stars Hugh Laurie and Olivia Colman miss out in the acting categories, with only The Night Manager's Tom Hollander up for supporting actor for the BBC1 drama.

Giggs to tell court: I'm a bit special

FORMER Manchester United and Wales footballer Ryan Giggs will argue that he made a "special contribution" to the creation of wealth during his marriage to estranged wife Stacey, a divorce court judge has been told.

The pair are in a money fight following the breakdown of their relationship.

A judge overseeing the dispute at hearings in the Family Division of the High Court in London has heard that Giggs (above) will call witnesses to support his "special contribution" claim at any trial.

Lawyers told Mr Justice Cobb that Mrs Giggs would call witnesses in "reply".

No-one likely to be called as a witness was identified at a hearing when Mr Justice Cobb analysed preliminary issues in the case.

The judge will probably be asked to decide how big a share of the marital asset kitty Mrs Giggs should get if agreement is not reached.

He said a trial was unlikely to take place for some time.

50,000 bumped off Brit flights

AROUND 50,000 airline passengers a year are bumped off British flights, many of which have been deliberately overbooked, according to the aviation watchdog.

Paying customers can be forced to abandon a pre-booked journey under the practice, which aims to slash costs and promote greener travel.

Global outrage was provoked when footage surfaced of a doctor being violently manhandled off an overbooked US flight, leaving him bloodied.

Data from the Civil Aviation Authority shows an average of 0.02% of passengers travelling to or from the UK experienced so-called 'denied boarding' in 2015 – equivalent to more than 50,000 people.

The CAA said: "The main reasons were due to overbooking or having to bring in a smaller aircraft to operate a flight."

MEL GETS PALLI WITH ALLI...

OWN GOAL? Dele partied but Ruby Mae was nowhere to be seen

...and here she is with her two up front!

By JESS GALLEY

jess@sundaysport.co.uk

SPURS star Dele Alli could be in trouble with his missus after he was spotted out on the town with Playboy bunny Melissa Howe.

England midfielder Alli was celebrating his 21st birthday at Kensington's Club No. 41 when he was seen partying with the 26-year-old glamour babe.

Melissa was one of many women apparently invited to the swanky bash, after Premier League title challengers Spurs bashed Watford 4-0 on Sunday.

And Dele's team-mates Kyle Walker and Danny Rose also turned up to join in their pal's big day.

However, the rising England star set tongues wagging as his scorching girlfriend, model Ruby Mae, 21, was nowhere to be seen all night.

Sexy

One source said: "It was a wild night. Dele was having a brilliant time and spoke to everyone.

"He was the centre of attention as you might expect – especially with the female guests.

"It was noticeable just how many sexy young women were invited to the party.

"But people couldn't help but notice that there was no sign anywhere of Ruby Mae."

Dele isn't the first footballer Melissa has partied with, as she and twin sister Carla have been linked to a number of Premier League stars – including Ashley Cole and Marouane Chamakh.

The stunning sisters have also been rumoured to have got close to Cheryl's baby daddy Liam Payne, despite rejecting his advances, and fellow X Factor alumni James Arthur.

POP babe Cheryl has shared her joy at becoming a mum by changing her social media status.

The singer recently gave birth to her first child with One Direction star Liam Payne and has given an indication of how the first weeks of parenthood are going by updating her description of herself on both Twitter and Instagram.

The 33-year-old former Girls Aloud star changed her tag line on both sites to "Living in a love bubble", followed by a blue heart mofif.

Cheryl and Liam, 23, welcomed their son on March 22, but have not shared his name yet.

Fans were happy to see Cheryl enjoying motherhood, with one tweeting: "Just seen Cheryl's bio. So cute. She deserves all the happiness."

Emily looks BRA-vellous

MODEL Emily Ratajkowski looks sensational in undies and a sheer nightgown.

The 25-year-old babe is the face and body of designer DKNY's latest campaign and she looks stunning in the fashion label's designs.

In one picture she models a white lacy two-piece lingerie set which manages to hold up her ample assets.

Emily also shows off her lithe frame in a navy blue nightgown, which just about protects her modesty, thanks to a long piece of fabric hanging between her legs.

Emily shot to fame in 2013 when she danced topless in Robin Thicke and Pharrell Williams's saucy music video for their global hit Blurred Lines.

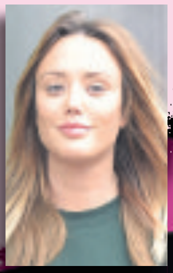
REALITY TV star Charlotte Crosby says she knew Stephen Bear was 'The One' – after just 17 days together.

The 26-year-old former Geordie Shore stunna (below) revealed she wants to start a family with Bear, 27, and is convinced she'll spend the rest of her life with him.

They've only been dating for six weeks but the reality TV pairing have been gushing about each other – and their futures.

Charlotte said: "We'll have a reality baby! I want three or four kids. I'm not broody just yet, but I've already picked my baby names.

"One day I would love to marry Bear. I'll be with him for the rest of my life."



Not much material there, girl!

MADONNA'S daughter Lourdes has certainly grown up, judging by these sexy bikini pictures.

The eldest child of the 58-year-old Queen of pop showed off her impressive beach body as she frolicked with friends.

Lourdes Leon, 20, wore a string black two-piece and the tiny top did well to keep her ample boobs in place.

Her toned tum and cleavage were clear for all to see as she soaked up the Florida sun in party hotspot Miami.

Lourdes is Madonna's eldest child with her former lover Carlos Leon, 50, who she enjoyed a steamy affair with back in the 1990s.

Mark: I tell Michelle how to have sex!

FORMER The Only Way is Essex hunk Mark Wright gives his fit missus Michelle Keegan SEX TIPS for her raunchy telly scenes.

The 30-year-old heart-throb and his actress wife Michelle, 29, have been tarnished by constant marriage split rumours.

But Mark reckons the stunning couple are stronger than ever.

He said that their relationship is so strong he even gives her sex tips when she's filming with her male co-stars.

Mark said: "I actually give her tips and say things like, 'Why didn't you close your eyes – that would be more real'.

"I know that it's just acting and there are 50 people in a room telling them to do this and that and it's not at all sexy."

Dogged

However, the 'rocky marriage' rumours won't disappear anytime soon as Michelle is set to jet off to South Africa for filming.

She's signed up to a third series of BBC war drama Our Girl and will be away from the UK for up to EIGHT months.

Mark and Michelle met on holiday in Dubai in 2012 and moved in together in Essex in 2014.

They tied the knot in 2015.

OLYMPIC STAR IS PORN QUEEN

BOARD WITH IT ALL: Melo left snowboarding for adult movie industry

By GABRIEL ZAMFIR news@sundaysport.co.uk

A FORMER Olympic star is making her debut as a PORN ACTRESS after her athletic career came to a shuddering climax.

Melo Imai represented Japan in the half-pipe snowboarding competition at the 2006 Winter Olympics in Turin, Italy, where she placed 34th.

She has since been married, had a child and got divorced before starting a career as a TV presenter.

Melo also revealed in her autobiography that she was as a hooker in her late teens.

But she has now been called to a new vocation, with her adult film debut Snow Drop set for release soon.

Forbidden

Adverts for the adult movie say Melo, 29, has an “athletic body made of steel, trained to a world-class level”.

And it adds: “Now, she’s finally opened up to sex.”

Melo said: “I was raised by a very strict father until I was 17. I was forbidden from any sort of behaviour that was girly – like wearing a skirt or putting on make-up.

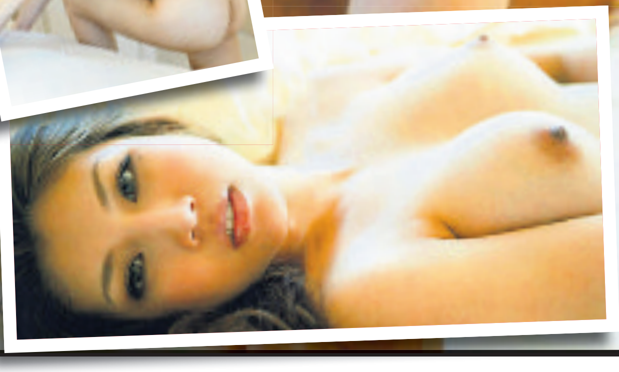
“I just wanted to get out of that life, so I’d dress up pretty and work as a bar hostess.”

And she said of her time as a sex worker: “There was a time of youthful recklessness when I became a call girl – because I needed money – but everything besides that, I wanted to do of my own volition.

“I have no regrets with the way my life has turned out, and I’m not ashamed of it either.”

Melo also has plans for her next career steps after pornography, eyeing up fashion work or as a snowboarding coach.

Her last big win in snowboarding was the Takasago Cup back in 2008.



Tycoon must still split his £140m fortune with ex

A MILLIONAIRE financier has lost a Court of Appeal fight after complaining his estranged wife walked away with “too much money” following the collapse of their marriage.

American Randy Work, 50 (above), had asked appeal judges to consider his case after complaining that a High Court judge did not give him a big enough share of a fortune totalling more than £140 million.

Mr Work said Mr Justice Holman, who concluded that Mandy Gray should get a half-share, did not recognise the “special contribution” he had made to the creation of their fortune.

Three appeal judges, Sir Terence Etherton, Lady Justice King dismissed his appeal last week.

Mr Justice Holman had said, in a ruling in March 2015, that Mr Work and Ms Gray had been “two strong and equal partners” over 20 years and that Ms Gray had been a “good wife” and “homemaker”.

Lamborghini shop crash liars jailed

A RESTAURANT manager and his club promoter friend were each jailed for four months for lying about crashing a Lamborghini Gallardo into shops and causing £100,000 of damage.

Talal Alkassab, 39, and Diyaa Lababidi, 33, who both previously pleaded guilty to conspiracy to pervert the course of justice, were sentenced at London’s Southwark Crown Court.

Lababidi was at the wheel with Alkassab’s full permission when the supercar hit several bollards before ploughing into shops in the heart of London’s high-end Mayfair retail district, just after midnight on July 23 2015.

The men ran away and abandoned the car.

Restaurant owner Alkassab, who had hired the Lamborghini, told his friend not to tell the cops as his insurance would not cover it.

Lababidi was not insured to drive the car.

An inside source revealed that Gemma could be close to signing on the dotted line, adding: "Gemma could be the new Helen Flanagan."

The 34-year-old admitted she'd like to take part in ITV series I'm A Celebrity… Get Me Out of Here! and reckons she'd be good at the bushtucker trials.

Nikki, who shot to fame on series seven of Big Brother in 2006, thinks heading Down Under would change people's opinions of her.

Chomp

And the drama queen said she'd be happy to take on the show's infamous eating challenge – and would even be willing to chomp on a kangaroo's penis.

London-born Nikki said: "I'd love to do I'm A Celebrity.

"Everyone thinks I'd be a bit of a diva, so I would love to prove everybody wrong. I'm sure I could eat kangaroo dick!"

Nikki first entered the BB house 11 years ago and returned to the show in 2010 and again in 2015 as a Timewarp housemate.

She also took part in the Canadian version of the show as an International Wildcard last year.

Nikki added: "I will never, ever tire of Big Brother. I just love it, it's like my second home."

But it's not just reality telly that Nikki would like to try her hand at, as she also revealed she'd like to bag herself a role in a soap.

She said: "I'd love to be in Hollyoaks. I've been spending time up North so I've got the accent down to a T!"

Missing woman: Two bodies found

THE body of a woman missing for more than a fortnight has been found alongside that of a man, police said.

Kanwal Bernice Williams (below), 50, from Lutton, Lincs, had not been seen since March 25 with police appealing for information about her whereabouts.

Officers yesterday confirmed they are linking the discovery of the bodies with the missing person inquiry, which has since been taken down.

Lincolnshire Police said the bodies of a male and female were found at a house in the Lutton area, near Spalding, with officers saying the deaths were "unexplained".

The force added: "Police are not seeking anyone else in connection with this inquiry."

Investigations into the deaths are ongoing and formal identifications will not take place until later this week.

THREE is definitely not a crowd for topless stunna Lexi Lowe... because she loves romping with both men and women.

Lexi, 25, from Newport, South Wales, enjoys a saucy ménage a trois and also loves experimenting between the sheets.

Submissive

However, the 32FF busty blonde needs a bloke with stamina to keep her satisfied in the bedroom.

She said: "What haven't I done when it comes to shagging?

"Well, not that much, to be honest! I love experimenting and I have had a few threesomes in the past – in all kinds of weird and wonderful combinations.

"I love being submissive with two guys, I'm totally in my element like that and I really love to be the centre of attention.

"But they must have the stamina to keep up with me!

"I've had lots of sexual experiences with girls, too.

"I really like being with other women, because the sex is usually a lot more sensual."

HACK'S KITCHEN!

Ramsay's dad-in-law admits to computer attack

CLASHES: Ramsay and Hutcheson

DENIAL: Orlanda Butland

By EMILY PENNINK
news@sundaysport.co.uk

CELEBRITY chef Gordon Ramsay's father-in-law yesterday admitted hacking the star's computer.

Chris Hutcheson, 68, was charged with conspiring to cause a computer to access programs and data without authority.

Three of his children – Adam Hutcheson, 46, Orlanda Butland, 45, and Chris Hutcheson Jnr, 37 – also faced the same charge.

Plot

They appeared at the Old Bailey before Judge Gerald Gordon and spoke to confirm their identities.

The defendants pleaded guilty apart from Orlanda Butland. The prosecution accepted the pleas and offered no evidence in relation to Ms Butland.

Hutcheson Snr is the father of Ramsay's wife, Tana. The charges relate to an alleged plot to hack computers at Gordon Ramsay Holdings Ltd between October 23, 2010 and March 31 2011.

Orlanda Butland, of Earlsfield, south-west London, Hutcheson Snr, who has a home in Druillat, France, but gave the same address as his daughter, Hutcheson Jnr, of Welwyn Garden City, Hertfordshire, and Adam Hutcheson, of Sevenoaks, Kent, were all on bail.

The judge agreed to the preparation of reports and said all sentencing options were open. He adjourned sentencing to June 2.

For Orlanda Butland, Judge Gordon formally entered a not guilty verdict in her case.

The other defendants, who were granted continued bail, face a possible sentence of two years in prison.

The court heard that Hutcheson Snr is due to go into hospital later this month for a hip replacement operation.

Gordon Ramsay's new daytime show Culinary Genius starts next week hosted by Fern Britton.

Baby girl for Brad and Irina

HOLLYWOOD star Bradley Cooper and model Irina Shayk are celebrating the birth of a baby daughter, according to reports.

The Oscar-nominated actor and his Russian girlfriend welcomed the arrival of their first child two weeks ago, People magazine said.

The baby has been named Lea de Seine Shayk Cooper, according to a source close to the couple.

The pair have not commented publicly on the reports and their representatives did not respond to requests for comment.

Cooper, 42, star of The Hangover, and Victoria's Secret model Shayk, 31, have been dating since 2015.

RHIAN'S BIG BRUV BID

By BECCA STUBBS becca@sundaysport.co.uk

GLAMOUR girl Rhian Sugden wants to make a shock return to the Big Brother house.

Rhian, 30, would jump at the chance to get back into the Channel 5 house after she first appeared in 2012.

The topless stunna reckons the time is right for a second appearance on the reality show, as she believes it will be a totally different experience.

She said: "I would love to go back in and experience it properly. I am more mature now and less hot-headed."

Blonde bombshell Rhian raised plenty of eyebrows five years ago after she flirted with 27-year-old Ashley McKenzie in the house, despite having a boyfriend.

Her fame first came in 2010 when the hot babe was involved in a sexting scandal with married man Vernon Kay, 42.

However, she now says she's keen to put the scandals behind her and give the public a real perception of herself.

Fellow glamour girls Gemma Massey, 32, and Holly Henderson, 32, are also hotly tipped to enter the Big Brother house when the reality show returns this summer.

Lamar splits fans with U2 album track

YANK rapper Kendrick Lamar has confirmed his latest album features a collaboration with U2 as he unveiled artwork for the record's cover.

Damn, which is the 29-year-old's third studio release, also features an appearance from Rihanna on Loyalty.

The musician (above) posted the 14-track album's artwork on Twitter yesterday – which shows him standing in front of a brick wall in a T-shirt.

He also appears on the back of the record, alongside the track listings, with all the song titles just one word – including Blood, DNA, Fear and new single, Humble.

Fans on social media were excited by the appearance of Rihanna on the record, although some were unsure about U2's presence.

Hannah Dot said: "Kendrick has a song featuring…U2. Okay."

And @Ciara_BK posted: "I really do not need to hear U2 on a Kendrick album."

BRITAIN'S Got Talent* judge Amanda Holden spices things up between the panel by sending lots of raunchy WhatsApp messages.

Amanda, 46, and her fellow judges Alesha Dixon, 38, David Walliams, 45, and Simon Cowell, 57, are all in an online messaging group.

TV hosts Ant, 41, and Dec, 41, are also in the group and they receive daily sexy content from blonde MILF Amanda.

Alesha said: "We have a group WhatsApp. It gets very naughty – mainly the content from Amanda!"

As well as spending weeks together filming, the BGT crew also regularly see plenty of each other outside of the studio.

Steamy

Mum-of-two Amanda isn't shy about her sex life and has even confessed to owning a box of sex toys.

She's also revealed that she enjoys a steamy romp on the sofa with her husband of nine years, Chris Hughes, 43.

PERIOD drama Versailles caused shock waves when the Beeb released a preview of the new series which shows a FIVE-IN-A-BED romp!

The second season returns to BBC2 later this month and teaser clips already show an X-RATED scene.

After some viewers branded the first season "pornographic", the faint-hearted might want to switch off their sets to avoid more sex scenes when the programme starts again on Friday, April 21.

Versailles isn't the only show to have seen group romping on the box though.

Popular fantasy drama Game Of Thrones is laden with nookie with Tyrion Lannister, played by Peter Dinklage, 47, enjoying a ménage à trois which had viewers' pulses really racing.

Topping the list for kinky sex scenes is Netflix series Narcos, which sees main character Pablo Escobar enjoy a number of lovers.

It even features a NINE-in-a-bed orgy with bodies entwined all over a bed!

With naughty romps happening on the small screen every day, we take a look at some of the hottest shagging scenes on the box...

Katie demands database of cyber bullies

KATIE Price has called for the introduction of a national register of cyber bullies.

The former glamour model, whose eldest son Harvey has been the target of online abuse, started a petition demanding the Government take action over the trolls.

It has so far attracted more than 200,000 signatures.

Appearing on Loose Women alongside Harvey, Price revealed three people had been arrested by police investigating abuse of the 14-year-old, who is partially blind, autistic and has Prader-Willi syndrome.

The 38-year-old (above) said: "The police don't know what to do with them. They don't know how to punish them.

"There are always a lot of people who have bullied people and stuff, but when it's really bad there should be action taken.

"Obviously, nothing has been done."

The petition demands the Government should introduce a database of those found guilty of online lying.

Brexit hits us retiring to EU

BREXIT has scuppered Brits' retirement plans as they shy away from a move to Europe and look at alternatives in the UK.

About 45% of people over 50 say they are now less likely to consider retiring abroad.

And nearly 41% of Brits who were previously considering retirement in Europe say the Brexit vote has poured cold water on their plans, according to research by housing and care provider Anchor.

The survey found 63% were worried about losing access to the NHS, which finances healthcare for citizens in the EU, while 26% were anxious about a lack of suitable care options abroad.

However, concerns over settlement rights and access to healthcare after Brexit have boosted interest in UK options.

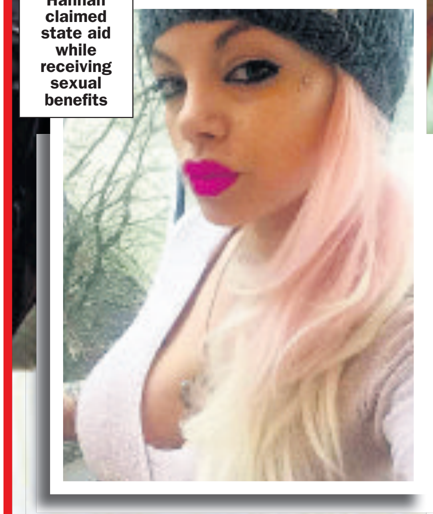
PORN STAR EARNED £22K FILMING FILTH WHILE CLAIMING DOLE

HOT STUFFING: Cheat Hannah got paid to get boned on vid



NAUGHTY: Hannah claimed state aid while receiving sexual benefits

By JESS GALLEY

jess@sundaysport.co.uk

HARDCORE porn star Hannah Panayides has avoided jail after being caught out falsely claiming benefits.

The 35-year-old, known by her alias Delta White, had starred in X-rated skinflicks – including Delta White Fingers Other Girl's Ass – despite claiming to be unemployed.

Panayides was also raking in £150 a night as a stripper and cashing in by peeling off and talking dirty for punters on webcam.

The benefits mum tricked authorities into believing she was a single mother with no job when she was actually bringing home around £22,000 a year.

But the busty blonde was caught out after benefit fraud investigators at Watford Borough Council received a tip-off last year and started to look into her lifestyle.

The mother-of-one admitted working for online adult entertainment site Adult Work – where she earned as much as £100 a day.

Summoned

Investigators also found that in a period of 13 months she was paid £22,000 whilst claiming £1,148 in council tax reductions.

Panayides was summoned to court but failed to show up and was found guilty of fraud in her absence and fined £440.

Last year, Panayides was also fined £332 for using a TV without a licence.

The Department for Work and Pensions confirmed they have cancelled her claim for social security benefits between March 2015 and May 2016 and that she will now have to repay the full amount.

Panayides' latest role in a blue movie was two years ago when she starred in UK Biggest Boobs 1.

As well as getting reamed and sucking cock in kinky pornos, she also previously worked as an escort and charged an average of £350-an-hour for her explicit services.

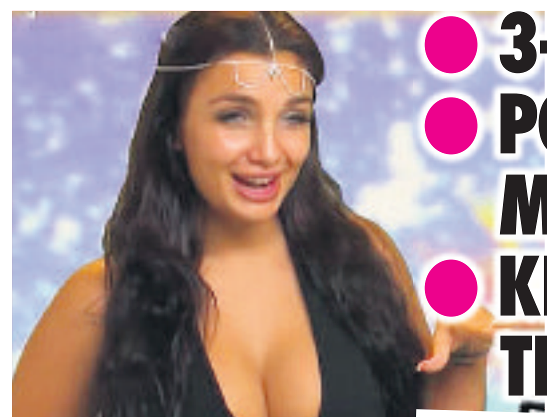
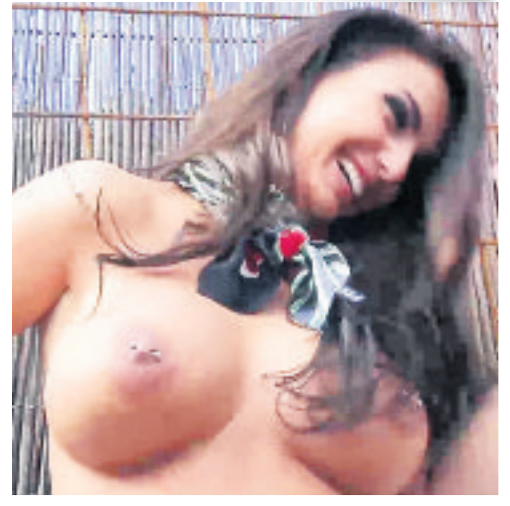
Elettr-ic!

- 3-WAY LESBO SNOGS
- POURS VODKA OVER MARNIE'S FANNY
- KNICKERS OFF ON THE DANCE FLOOR





By JESS GALLEY
jess@sundaysport.co.uk

OUTRAGEOUS reality show Geordie Shore has met its match in new girl Elettra Lamborgini.

Italian scorcher Elettra made her debut on the booze-fuelled MTV show last night and wasted no time making a saucy impression on her fellow housemates.

The 22-year-old, who is the granddaughter of Ferruccio Lamborghini, set the lads' pulses racing when she turned up at the Newcastle house as one of the new workers on trial.

Knickers

And she left the rest of the cast members stunned when she tried to get her fellow newbie Eve Shannon out of her knickers in the middle of a packed nightclub dancefloor.

Elettra then teased Aaron Chalmers with a cheeky dance before turning her attention to her female co-stars and sharing a three-way kiss with Marnie Simpson and Chloe Ferry.

She said: "For the first night, I decided to kiss only girls because I don't want to create problems."

After flirting with the majority of the girls, Elettra then straddled Marty McKenna in the club and invited the lucky lad to lick lime juice off her jaw-dropping norks.

Marty said: "Fk me, this girl is fit. Instant stiffy!

"She's grinding all over us, she's pouring lime on her tits and I'm licking it off. This is heaven!"

Elettra – dubbed The Italian Killer – didn't stop there though and also poured vodka all over CBB star Marnie's fanny during the rowdy night out on the Toon.

This isn't Elettra's first taste of reality telly though as she has previously starred in the Spanish version of Geordie Shore, Super Shore.

And the brunette stunna has also stripped off and graced the cover of Playboy Italia.

You can see Elettra in action on Geordie Shore every Tuesday from 10pm on MTV.

TV STAR EVER?

Tamara: The Only Way Is Ecclestone!

RICH girl Tamara Ecclestone would love to appear on reality TV show The Only Way Is Essex.

The 32-year-old stunna is daughter to ex-Formula 1 boss Bernie Ecclestone but is keen to make a name for herself.

She's already been the star of her own reality show called Tamara Ecclestone: Billion $$ Girl and now she's got a taste, she's hungry for more.

When asked which reality show she'd love to star in, mum-of-one Tamara (above) said: "The Only Way Is Essex. My husband is from there so I have to be loyal – it's the best UK reality show."

Tamara's husband, Jay Rutland, 36, was born in Essex but they both now reside in a swanky mansion in Kensington, London.

Tamara's life has been full of relationship drama so she wouldn't be out of place with the Essex cast.

Ex-fella Jonathan Ketterman was found guilty of blackmailing her in 2013, and Jay, was accused of assisting a drugs baron till charges were dropped.

I NEVER KNEW THEY WROTE THAT!

THEY'VE been huge hits for huge stars – but it's a surprise when you learn which other megastars actually wrote the songs. Here's a few that might be news to you...

LITTLE Things was One Direction's second number one single in the UK and the second single off their 2012 album Take Me Home – but was in fact written by none other than ginger maestro himself Ed Sheeran.

Big Ed also penned Justin Bieber's quirky chart-topper Love Yourself, which was released by the Canadian singer in 2015.

CHAKA Khan's I Feel For You charted in 1984 but was written by Prince in 1979.

MILEY Cyrus's 2009 hit Party in the USA was actually written by Jessie J before she found fame herself.

BRITNEY Spears' Till the World Ends was a massive hit for her in 2011 – thanks to the songwriting talents of Ke$ha, who co-wrote it with Dr Luke.

ARETHA Franklin's classic Respect became her signature hit – but it was penned by Sitting on the Dock of the Bay soul man Otis Redding.

ARETHA might have had a voice to die for, but she relied on others to give her the songs to showcase it.

Her other massive hit, You Make Me Feel Like a Natural Woman, was in fact written by fellow 60s songstress Carole King, of It's Too Late fame.

Vicky's lust for gobful

BRITISH actress Vicky McClure never wants to move Stateside – because she'd miss a Greggs PASTY.

Vicky has shot to fame with lead roles in BBC drama The Replacement and hit crime show Line Of Duty.

Her success on the small screen led to suggestions she could be lined up as the next James Bond – but she insists she won't be moving from her roots.

Nottingham-born Vicky, 33, says she'll stay in the UK because she can't be away from the nation's favourite, a Greggs sausage roll.

"I like normal life. I have a house, I have my family near me," said Vicky (left).

"It would be very hard for me to move to Hollywood because I'd be nowhere near a Greggs and I don't think I'd like a life without a sausage roll."

Vicky won a BAFTA for her starring role in British drama This Is England '86.

Veronika ZEMANOVA

By JESS GALLEY jess@sundaysport.co.uk

CZECH scorcher Veronika Zemanova is on the prowl for her very own SEX SLAVE.

The 30-year-old beauty, who now lives in posh Chelsea, admitted her ultimate bedroom fantasy would be to have a fella to tend to her every desire in the bedroom for an entire day.

Veronika said she'd make the most of having her very own submissive by making him do whatever she wants, whenever she wants it.

Strap-on

The 30G glamour stunna said: "I'd love to have a sex slave for a day! This man would be at my beck and call.

"If I wanted someone to, say, caress my boobs and lick my nipples, he would do it for as long as I wanted!

"I'd make him go down on me for hours. And I might even wear a strap-on and take him from behind, to 'punish' him! I can be very mean!"

Comedy star Jack Whitehall:

SEX WITH EVA LONGORIA MADE ME CRY

PAINFUL ROMP: Jack lost his hair in sex scene with Eva

FUNNY man Jack Whitehall was reduced to TEARS when he filmed a BONKING scene with Eva Longoria.

The Fresh Meat star plays hapless teacher Paul Pennyfeather in new BBC drama Decline and Fall.

Jack's character moves to Wales and instantly falls for the mother of one of his pupils, Margot Beste-Chetwynde, played by the Desperate Housewives actress.

And while the comedian was lucky enough to get jiggy between the sheets with Eva, 42, Jack was left disappointed when bosses decided to cut the shagging scene from the final version of the show.

By JESS GALLEY

jess@sundaysport.co.uk

Saucy

However, the decision to axe the romp scene might have been for the best as Jack, 28, was reduced to tears after the saucy scene took a sour turn.

He explained: "I was bragging about my sex scene with Eva Longoria and then it was cut.

"I was very upset, but it wasn't the best sex scene.

"I was wearing pyjamas and double sided tape had been used on them.

"As Eva ripped my top off, it pulled out my chest hair and I was literally in tears."

Jack's character is forced to start teaching after he is wrongly expelled from Oxford University for indecent exposure, after falling victim to a prank by the Bollinger Club.

The series is based on the comedy novel by Evelyn Waugh and also stars Game of Thrones star Gemma Whelan and David Suchet.

Eight held in Russia subway bomb probe

EIGHT suspected members of extremist cells have been arrested in connection with last week's deadly bombing on the subway in St Petersburg.

The suicide bombing on the subway in Russia's second largest city killed 13 passengers and injured dozens.

Akbardzhon Dzhalilov, a 22-year old Kyrgyz-born Russian national, has been identified as the bomber.

Six members of terror cells were detained in St Petersburg and two in Moscow in connection with the attack.

All of them hail from former Soviet Central Asian republics.

Police found a large amount of weapons and ammunition at their homes.

Buffy star let it all hang out ‘for a laugh’

BONES hunk David Boreanaz often walked around NUDE while on set on the hit show Buffy the Vampire Slayer.

The 47-year-old actor played Angel in Buffy and his co-star Sarah Michelle Gellar revealed his exhibitionism habits.

Sarah, 39, said David (above) would walk around set naked to see if he could make the TV crew laugh.

She said: “He would come out with no pants on to see if he could make people laugh.”

Co-star Charisma Carpenter, 46, added: “It’s shocking how often he was comfortable being naked and how giggly he is.”

American show Buffy debuted in 1997 and ended six years later in 2003 – but remains one of the most popular teenage shows of all time.

The original cast have been reliving their days on the show.

Since 2005, David has played cocky FBI agent Seeley Booth in the detective comedy drama series Bones opposite Emily Deschanel.

HORSES killed more people in Australia from 2000 to 2013 than all venomous animals combined.

Buckfast monks’ wine backlash

MONKS who make Buckfast tonic wine linked to violent crime in Scotland should be stripped of charitable status, say campaigners.

The National Secular Society says the beverage made at Buckfast Abbey in Devon is harmful.

Buckfast Abbey Trust does not pay tax on the income because it is a charity, which the society claims is an “abuse of the charitable system”.

The trust made a record £8.8million last year from sales of the caffeine-fuelled Buckfast wine.

A Scottish sheriff said last year there was a “very definite association between Buckfast and violence”.

In 2015, the Scottish Prison Service found 43.4 per cent of inmates had consumed Buckfast before their last offence.

Woman who ‘forcibly sucked off a cabbie at knifepoint’

HELD: Brittany Carter

By JESS GALLEY jess@sundaysport.co.uk

A FEMALE passenger has been charged with RAPING a male taxi driver, before stealing his cash.

Brittany Carter is accused of performing a sex act on the unnamed driver while he was being pinned down with a knife to his throat by a male accomplice.

According to police documents, at around 4.25am on January 28, Carter and two males booked a taxi to collect them from TownePlace Suites hotel.

The 23-year-old, from Ohio, called for a cab to collect her and the two men – one identified as Cory Jackson, 20.

Threesome

During the trip Jackson is alleged to have pulled out a blade and held it to the Trinity Express Cab driver’s throat, while Carter performed an unspecified sex act on their victim.

The threesome then stole £25 from the driver before making their getaway on foot.

They left the driver unharmed, who then reported what had happened to the police.

Officers tracked down Carter and charged her with “having purposely compelled the driver to engage in sexual conduct by force or threat”.

CHARGED: Jackson

Carter is currently being held at Hancock County Jail, while Jackson, who is still at large, has been charged with aiding and abetting Carter’s crimes along with aggravated robbery.

Although the third culprit has not yet been identified, cops said they are not expecting to charge that male.

Four-month old boy’s death riddle

CHILD abuse officers are investigating the death of a four-month old boy who was found ill at home.

Police were called at 7.55am on Monday to reports of a young child unwell at an address in Tolworth Broadway, Surbiton.

The baby was taken to a south London hospital where he was pronounced dead at 8.50am.

Officers from the sexual offences, exploitation and child abuse command have been informed.

No arrests had been made last night.

Patsy quits Tinder after app outing

ACTRESS Patsy Kensit is FURIOUS after her online dating profile was discovered by fans.

The 49-year-old (above) turned to dating app Tinder to find love but is now mortified after it was outed online.

Her profile Tinder shows the stunna looking to the side in one picture and simply says 'Patricia, 49' but has now been deleted by the embarrassed star.

A source said: "Patsy's devastated that she was called out. She quit the app immediately and says her last chance to find love was taken away.

"She feels lonely and wants someone to love her as a normal person, not as a celebrity. It's harder to find your soul mate as you get older.

"She's hoping it's still going to happen and is gutted she's now been scared off online dating."

Patsy turned to internet dating after four failed marriages to singer Dan Donovan, 49, Simple Minds pop star Jim Kerr, 57, Oasis frontman Liam Gallagher, 44, and DJ Jeremy Healy, 55.

Patsy is ready to date again and is hoping to find love with a normal Brit.

Hot legs!

FRENCHY AND PHOEBE LOVE THE CRACK-IN' WEATHER

MERMAID
OFF DUTY

By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

FLASHERS Phoebe Price and Angelique 'Frenchy' Morgan limbered up and stretched themselves as they enjoyed a spot of beach yoga.

Instead of relaxing in the sunshine the glamorous pals decided to do some exercises when they took to the beach in Malibu, California.

Actress Phoebe, 44, wore a daringly low-cut red swimsuit which showed off a generous amount of side boob.

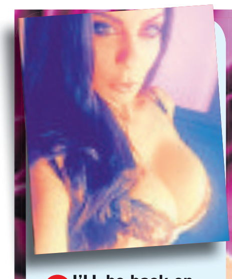
Her pal, Frenchy, 41, matched her in the skimpy stakes with a pale pink two-piece bikini which barely protected her modesty.

The pair laid out their towels on the beach and decided to spread their legs WIDE in a very kinky pose, before bending over to show off their peachy bums and strike up yet another racy yoga position.

Both beauties sported full make-up and Phoebe really glammed-up her look by adding a choker-style necklace and huge hoop earrings.

One onlooker said: "Those girls may be in their forties, but they're still very supple.

"I'd sure like to get into some sex positions with the pair of them!"



I'LL be back on Studio 66 TV tonight from 10pm on Sky channel 912 and from midnight on Freeview channel 185. But if you can't tune in this evening then I will also be working on Saturday night – same time, same place! And don't forget you can catch me on www.harddrive.xxx every day!

Linsey Dawn McKenzie

SHE'S BRITAIN'S ONLY TOPLESS COLUMNIST

I SEE Kerry Katona is after having another child. She loves popping 'em out, doesn't she?!

Each to their own, but I have to say I'm not sure why these showbiz mums have to give every detail of theirs and their children's lives.

You know what, I actually take my hat off to Cheryl and Liam Payne because – although I disagree with how long they kept people guessing – they have both kept so quiet throughout the whole experience of having their first child and just enjoyed it privately, like normal parents I suppose.

I really think Cheryl has come across as so classy by choosing to shun any publicity deals and just spend this precious time with her new baby son, Liam and their families.

Good on you, Chezza!

TERRIFYING TIMES WE LIVE IN

IT terrifies me to think of what other tragedies we are in for this year after there was yet another terrorist attack – in Stockholm at the end of last week.

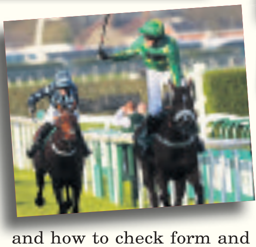
That incident, which killed four people, brings the tally to three Islamist terror attacks in just a matter of weeks and personally I think it is bloody terrifying.

It is so heart-breaking that innocent people are continuing to lose their lives because of the thoughtless and cowardly actions of a few individuals who claim to be committing these acts in the name of their god and religion.

My heart goes out to the families of the victims and everyone affected.

But we have to stay strong and go on with our daily lives – to show these terrorists that we won't be beaten!

National win was Grand!



FOR the second year running I backed the winner of the Grand National!

Most of you probably don't know this but I'm actually pretty good at picking winners as I know how to study form.

When I was younger and living with Michael Greco in North London I had to find a way to pass the time while he was out working all day on EastEnders.

So I used to pop over to the bookies and place a few bets.

I got talking to a lovely old bloke that used to spend his days in there and he taught me all about horse racing and how to check form and study the stats.

So it's something that's stuck with me ever since.

And it obviously works as I managed to pick the winner –and the horse that came in third this time around!

Bush is best!

I HEARD an exciting rumour this week about one of my very good friends, porn star Ella Hughes.

Word on the street is that Ella is going to be starring in the next series of Love Island on ITV2!

I know Ella really well and she would be absolutely brilliant on that show.

She is a gorgeous girl and has a HUGE ginger bush – the guys won't know what's hit them when she arrives in the villa!

It's always nice to see other girls from the industry moving into the mainstream side of things – on shows like this and Big Brother, so I really hope the rumours are true and she does well!

DIEGO'S KINKY COP SEX FANTASY

LOVIN' IT: Diego and Veronica

Maradona was a beast in bed!

By JESS GALLEY

jess@sundaysport.co.uk

HAND of God footie legend Diego Maradona has a kinky DRESSING UP fetish.

The Argentina star's ex-wife revealed he would often ask her to put on a policewoman's outfit when they got down to business.

Veronica Ojeda also revealed that her former hubby is a solid 10 out of 10 between the sheets and described him as the "best lover" she's ever had.

Veronica, 39, said: "Diego used to ask me to dress up as a woman police officer. I've still got the fancy dress costume. And others as well.

Oral

"Diego was the best lover I had and he says the same thing about me. Nobody beats him. I didn't have sex for two years after him.

"The love of my life was without doubt Diego. I've always said so. I give him 10 out of 10 in bed."

But while Maradona's skills between the sheets might be infallible, Veronica didn't score the 56-year-old as highly for his ORAL sex techniques.

She added: "Oral sex, on a scale of one to 10, eight."

The couple were together for eight years before they split up and have a son, Diego Fernando, together.

SKINNY AD IS OK

A SELFRIDGES fashion ad has been cleared by the advertising watchdog after a complaint the model looked "unhealthily thin".

A marketing email from the department store back in January was originally slammed as being "socially irresponsible".

But Selfridges said the model in their ad was not positioned in a way intended to exaggerate her slimness, adding that the loose fit of the dress would distort the actual size of any model, regardless of their size.

The store said that while they accepted the model was thin, the general public's perception of weight and whether or not an individual looked unhealthily thin was a subjective matter.

The Advertising Standards Authority said the model appeared to be in proportion.

And the 28-year-old actor (above) said he can't get enough of acting out the horny sex sessions in front of the cameras.

He said: "Adam is madly in love with his wife and they're trying for a baby. I'm enjoying the trying!

"It's been good fun to have some sex scenes.

"A bit of kissy-wissy, it's been good!"

WANTING IT: Teacher Jenna Leahey sent thousands of filthy sexts to lad she was tutoring at school (above)

'I'm horny all the time...'

SEX TEXTS OF RANDY TEACHER

By MYDRIM JONES
news@sundaysport.co.uk

A TEACHER who blitzed a student with thousands of sexts during a "groping and kissing" affair has been jailed for five years.

Jenna Leahey's messages to the 16-year-old included, "I'm horny all the time", "God I want u, I know I shouldn't", and "It's wrong; I still want it though".

The brunette, 35, told a court before being led away in handcuffs: "I'm deeply ashamed and embarrassed for what I have done."

The student, now 20, said she abused him while counselling him after a relative died of cancer.

"No 16-year-old should go through what I went through," he said in a statement.

Leahey tried to put some blame on the boy, claiming her texts between February and June 2013 were an ill-considered response to him sexually assaulting her, but prosecutor Meg Rodriquez denied the allegation, saying: "The facts do not support what Ms. Leahey says now."

Leahey admitted endangering the welfare of a child by debauching him with the sexually graphic messages.

A string of other charges, which include sexual assault and sending him raunchy, partially nude selfies were dismissed in a plea deal at an earlier hearing.

Judge Salem Ahto acknowledged Leahey occasionally texted the lad words to the effect of "Wait a couple of years, wait until you're 18".

"But then you didn't pay any attention to your own statement," he told Leahey at the Superior Court in Morristown, New Jersey.

Leahey could serve up to half of her sentence before being considered for parole said, prosecutor Rodriquez

She must then register with police in her hometown of Boonton as a convicted sex offender and will be subject to parole supervision for life.

A pal of the student had claimed the teenager told him he and Leahey touched each other's genitals in a classroom and would do "other physical things."

And a colleague of Leahey's at Parsippany Hills High said the boy told him he and Leahey had "made out" while "fooling around" in her car after she drove him home.

Police said Leahey had admitted touching his privates, but only because he forced her hand on to them.

She also claimed he was abusive with her, would touch her breasts and bottom and put his hand down her pants.

But Leahey, who was also a hockey coach, denied having intercourse while seeing him.

The youngster has filed a lawsuit against the school district alleging negligent supervision of Leahey.

Make a date for watching porn before a hook-up!

Faye Valentine says...

> A MAN doesn't need porn to turn him on before meeting me – I'll take care of that!
> All my dates end with sex, and I always let them know exactly what I've got to offer.

By BECCA STUBBS becca@sundaysport.co.uk

IF you've got a date coming up, watch porn before you head out as it's likely to go well if you do.

A new study claims that watching X-rated films before a first date makes it more likely to be successful.

Top psychologist Professor Birnbaum carried out the sexual study on almost 250 straight students.

He found that 'sexual priming' before a hook-up makes both sexes appear more open and outgoing on their date.

Results showed that even just thinking about sex before their date makes people more likely to disclose personal information about themselves.

However, it also made people more open during their online interactions as conversations over social media apps – like WhatsApp – also improved after viewing porn.

The study, called 'sex unleashes your tongue' claimed that the 'activation of the sexual system encourages the use of strategies that allow people to become closer to potential partners'.

Intimacy

Students who were shown a naked picture of the opposite sex for just 0.03 seconds were more willing to go on a blind date than those who were shown other images.

Explaining her findings, Prof Birnbaun said: "People reciprocate to these advances brought on by erotica, and that initiates a positive cycle of intimacy.

"Disclosing personal information makes the other person like you more, thereby motivating him or her to reciprocate.

"Consequently you get the impression that this person likes you, and you react by liking him or her more – we tend to like people who like us – and behave accordingly, for example by being nicer, flirting or complimenting.

"Overall, sex starts a positive cycle of getting closer to a stranger that may eventually build emotional connection between previously unacquainted people."

Watching porn or viewing images that turn people on made people more willing to date, and those who were going on dates to impress.

We asked three Midweek Sport stunnas if they've ever watched porn before a first date…

Diana Doll says...

> PORN films turns me on massively but I've not watched it before going on a date.
> Maybe I'll try it next time – although my dates haven't complained so far!

MIDWEEK Sport SEX FORUM

1 in 4 lads wants to have phone sex with SIRI!

Alison Brown
Age 21, 34B-24-36 from Plymouth

By JESS GALLEY
jess@sundaysport.co.uk

OVER a quarter of smartphone users confessed they would like to BONK Siri.

According to a new study, a whopping 26 per cent of regular users would like to get it on with the 'intelligent assistant'.

The poll quizzed more than 1,000 people over the age of 18 on their use of smartphone assistants and found that a big chunk of them had started to develop feelings towards them.

And one in four of those asked admitted to harbouring sexual fantasies about the virtual helper.

The survey asked users how often they use the feature and just under 20% said they access their phone's digital alter-ego at least once a week.

Of those 'regular' users, one third said they loved it so much that they often find themselves wishing it was a real person.

And it's not just Siri who is getting people hot under the collar, as another study revealed that users of the virtual assistant Robin are getting steamy too.

In one day Robin was found to have been accessed as many as 300 times by people – mainly fellas – who wanted to talk dirty.

Dirty

The chief executive of Robin Labs said: "This happens because people are lonely and bored.

"It's mostly teenagers and truckers who don't have girlfriends. They really need an outlet.

"It is a symptom of our society. As well as the people who want to talk dirty, there are men who want a deeper sort of relationship or companionship."

We asked Sport stunna Alison Brown whether she's struck up a relationship with the voice behind her smartphone.

Alison, 21, from Plymouth, said: "Oh my god, no way! I can't believe people actually get emotionally involved with just a voice on their phones.

"Siri has got a pretty sexy voice but she is not real – and these people must know that she talks the same way to everyone with an iPhone, surely?

"I've definitely never found myself chatting to her as if she was real, but I guess it is quite sad if there are people out there who do because they're lonely.

"Maybe if they put down their phones and put themselves out there in the real world, they would find a real companion!"

MY SEX FANTASY ...WITH RIAH READ

‘I did ballet at college so I’m really flexible in the bedroom!’

By COLIN HURST news@sundaysport.co.uk

RAUNCHY Riah Read is a red-hot minx in the bedroom – but that’s not the only place she likes to get it on!

The 34C stunna confessed she loves to bonk in public places, where she could get caught in the act!

And Riah, 24, said she enjoys the race to have an orgasm before she’s spotted.

The Birmingham beauty said: “I’d rather have it on the beach or a really romantic setting, like in front of a raging fire on a sheepskin rug.

“I also like having sex outdoors – in public places. You just feel so naughty knowing that you could be caught out at any minute.

“You’re caught between having a brilliant time and going at it like the clappers, in order to have an orgasm before a dog walker ambles past.

“I love to try new things and have sex in different places. The local bowling green always looks really tempting when I’m walking home from the pub, too!”

Riah is also a flexible dancer, which makes it easy for her to bend into all sorts of saucy sex positions.

She added: “I studied ballet at college and I used to be in a dance crew, so I’m really flexible in bed!

“I love weird and wonderful positions – reverse cowgirl, wheelbarrow, or up against a wall!”

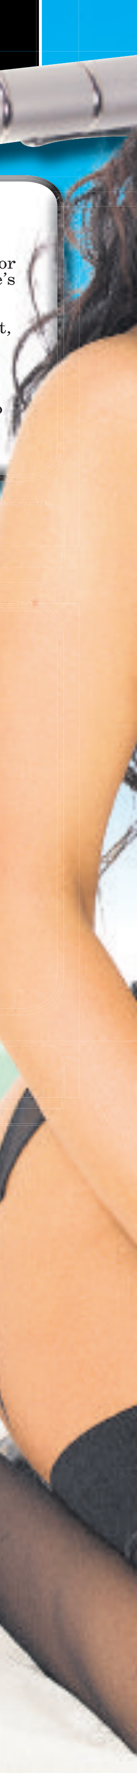
THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page



Dear Ashleigh,

I GAVE my girlfriend the most romantic treat I could think of for her birthday – I bought a box of beers, some lube, a PVC nurse's uniform and a heavy-duty porn film.

I microwaved a couple of ready meals and hoovered the sofa.

As we sat there watching the porn, her in her PVC outfit, swigging back the beers, she asked what the lube was for?

I told her that as it was her birthday I'd be treating her to some back-door action.

But as she rubbed her arse up, the romance of the whole scenario caused me to come in my pants. I've been far too embarrassed to call her since.

What should I do?

DT, Lincs

Ashleigh says…

SHE sounds like a classy lady, so I'm sure she'll forgive you.

Dear Ashleigh,

I HAVE just moved in with my gorgeous girlfriend who is the horniest babe alive and loves sex.

She lets me watch motor racing on telly but she hates footie and has said I have to choose between her and seeing the games.

I'm a lifelong Leeds United fan and although we've been pretty shit for ages and I can't afford a season ticket, I used to look forward to following them on the telly whenever possible, even if it's just highlights.

But every time she comes in, and I've got some footie action on the box, she goes mental and screams at me.

My girl said yesterday that if I watched another minute of football she wouldn't touch my cock for a month – and I can't go that long without getting my paws on her hot body.

So I'm torn between my love for Leeds – and watching any football action, however bad – and my love of shagging my missus.

What should I do?

EN, West Yorks

Ashleigh says…

YOU don't really need me to tell you the answer to that conundrum, do you?

I rogered the lodger, now her pal wants it

Dear Ashleigh,

I TOOK in a couple of young ladies as lodgers in my large Victorian terraced house recently.

Not only does it help pay the bills but I've got a sister who lives out in Australia and I'd really love to visit her later this year.

I am 45, divorced, and folk say I've kept myself looking fit and presentable.

Soon after these two girls, who are in their early 20s, moved in, I stayed up one night having a drink and a chat with one of them, a cute and busty brunette.

I eventually went up to bed but was surprised when she crept into my bed.

Well, I'd not had a lot of love action for a while and she was really fit – I marvelled at beautiful tits as she unleashed them from her T-shirt.

We made wild passionate love for several hours – in all manner of positions – before collapsing exhausted but satisfied.

Now her mate wants to do the same – I suppose she heard us both at it the other night and fancied some action too.

Should I let her?

DW, North Wales
XX, Xxxxxx

Ashleigh says…

NOT unless she pays extra for bed and BAWD

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week ASHLEIGH GEE has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you…

Help! Randy lady boss is working me to the boner

Dear Ashleigh,

MY boss at work is a real stunna. She's 46 years old, with blonde hair and big boobs – and I'm the luckiest bloke in the office because I've started knobbing her!

We were booked into a hotel recently after an important business meeting.

The day had gone well as we had signed a major deal, so we decided to have a few drinks in the bar.

At then end of the night the drink was clearly having an effect on her.

She told me that she was looking for a toyboy – I'm 26, by the way – and she asked if I was up for it.

Although I was shocked I didn't need asking twice and rushed her straight off to my room.

We had a good snog and then she pulled back and started stripping off her clothes, including her bra and panties, all the way down to her black stockings and suspenders.

I frantically kicked off my shoes and dropped my trousers and pants, after which my manhood sprung free and stiff and oozing pre-cum.

She knelt in front of me and started to stroke my knob with her manicured hands. She had skills in this are and her soft but firm touch brought me quickly to the edge and I shot my load all over her boobs and fingers.

We lay on the bed and drank some champagne from the mini-bar.

After a while she began to fondle and suck my cock again, and it soon sprang back in to action to receive the best blowjob I'd ever had.

She licked my balls and shaft until I could take no more, needing desperately to bury my cock in her chuff.

Ecstasy

Before I did, though, I returned the favour by going down on her lovely wet fanny – and she writhed in ecstasy as I drank from between her lower lips.

When she whispered for me to stick it in hard, I bent her over the bed and rammed it home from behind. I gave her a very good seeing-to and we were both dripping with sweat when she screamed out the first of several orgasms.

Since then we've been shagging loads and last week she introduced me to her fit best mate and we had a threesome.

They had lesbo sex, with fingers and tongues going in everywhere. I managed to get my cock in a spare orifice, and her mate sucked me dry.

But now the demands have started to become outrageous. She wants me to shag her in her office every couple of hours or so and wants more every night. I'm absolutely knackered but I don't want to upset her and risk losing my job.

What should I do?

EF, Kent

Ashleigh says…

WHY not introduce her to one of your mates and take a few nights off?

I didn't make up knix coming down

Dear Ashleigh,

I WAS sitting having a coffee in Starbucks the other day, minding my own business and quietly reading Midweek Sport.

I couldn't help notice a couple of fit women when they walked in.

One was a blonde and the other was a stunning redhead.

Panties

They looked like the sort of girls who might make great models for your paper, actully, they were that gorgeous.

They were both wearing very short skirts and low-cut tops that showed off their very impressive cleavages.

As I was admiring them discreetly I noticed them giggling and saw the redhead reach under her skirt and pull down her knickers.

She then put them in her handbag.

The blonde followed suit, and pulled down her red panties and popped them in her bag too.

I was amazed by this and could only think they were daring each other on in some kind of saucy stunt.

As I was trying to hide my raging hard-on, one of the girls caught my eye and smiled.

She then opened her legs wide and showed me her fanny! This prompted the other girl to show me her fine bush.

She then discreetly put her hand up her skirt and started to finger herself.

After a few minutes they both got up and left the coffee shop.

I have tried telling my mates what happened but they just won't believe me.

How can I prove that it actually happened?

FE, Stoke-on-Trent

Ashleigh says…

YOU can't – but it's OK, we believe you.

AGONY QUICKIES

Dear Ashleigh,

MY girlfriend really loves sucking other blokes' cocks and it's driving me mad. She's gobbled all my mates and last week I caught her with my dad's dick down her throat.

I really want to marry her but I want her to stop being such an oral slut. What should I do?

RD, Teesside

Ashleigh says…

TELL her to stop or she'll blow your relationship

Dear Ashleigh,

THANK you for your recent advice.

My baggy fanny problem has gone since I had the designer vagina operation that you so very kindly recommended.

My husbands says it's like fking an 18-year-old.

But now I want to know how the hell he how would he know what fking an 18-year-old is like?

TH, Manchester

Ashleigh says…

RELAX! He's probably just trying to be nice – but if he's not maybe you should arrange for him to have an operation – to remove his cock and balls!

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to the interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunnas appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

VERENA TWIGG

ELECTRICIAN Ian Warner begged us for a picture of his favourite glamour girl, Verena Twigg.

The 43-year-old, from Stockport, Greater Manchester, sent us an email asking for a busty picture of brunette babe Verena.

It's easy to see why Ian has the hots for 30-year-old Blackburn beauty Verena.

He said: "She's so fit. I love a good boob and Verena's 34Ds are the perfect handful.

"I'd love to cop a good feel!"

TRISHA PASSAM

BINMAN Corey Noble spotted a picture of Trisha Passam while emptying the bins – and he's been hooked on her ever since.

The 23-year-old, from Brighton, was on his rounds when he saw a topless beauty sticking out of the trash.

He picked up 30-year-old Trisha, from Durham, from a bin and he's been entranced by her 32Cs since then.

Corey said: "I saw a pair of boobs in one person's bin and took it out.

"It was Trisha. She's stunning, but I want another picture to stare at – please could I see one?"

KEIRA MOON

BETTING shop manager Gavin Holliday knows where he'd put his money if he had to bet on the best boobs.

Gavin, 33, from Swansea, reckons there's no one out there who can match Keira Moon's 36D sweater stretchers.

He doesn't only think 29-year-old Keira, from Tower Hamlets, London, has the best boobs in the UK but the best rack in the world.

Gavin said: "If they did an award for the greatest boobs in the world, I'd happily put a grand on Keira nabbing the gong."

SPEARMINT RHINO GENTLEMEN'S CLUBS

SPEARMINT RHINO BABE OF THE WEEK

Jodi LOUISE

By JESS GALLEY jess@sundaysport.co.uk

SAUCY model Jodi Louise says she has a wardrobe filled with KINKY bedroom outfits.

The 25-year-old stunna, from north London, said she prefers to squeeze her curves into skimpy lingerie rather than covering up in regular clothes.

Jodi stripped off and bared her 32D sweater stretchers for this topless photo shoot in honour of being named our Spearmint Rhino Girl of the Week.

Inhibitions

She also told us all about her dream fella and her idea of a perfect date.

Jodi said: "When I'm dating I always look for guys who are really confident – especially in the bedroom.

"They have to have no inhibitions when it comes to shagging.

"If they're arrogant though, then that's game over and they won't get to see my collection of kinky outfits.

"I own more sexy undies and dressing-up outfits than normal clothes – I absolutely LOVE dressing up!

"For my ideal date I'd prefer to strip off and sunbathe – topless of course – on a beautiful beach with a cocktail in my hand!"

Spearmint Rhino has a number of gentlemen's clubs around the world which boast the most beautiful dancers.

But if you can't make it to one of the venues, you can find Spearmint Rhino girls at boxing and Mixed Martial Arts (MMA) fights around the country, or at the British Superbike Rounds.

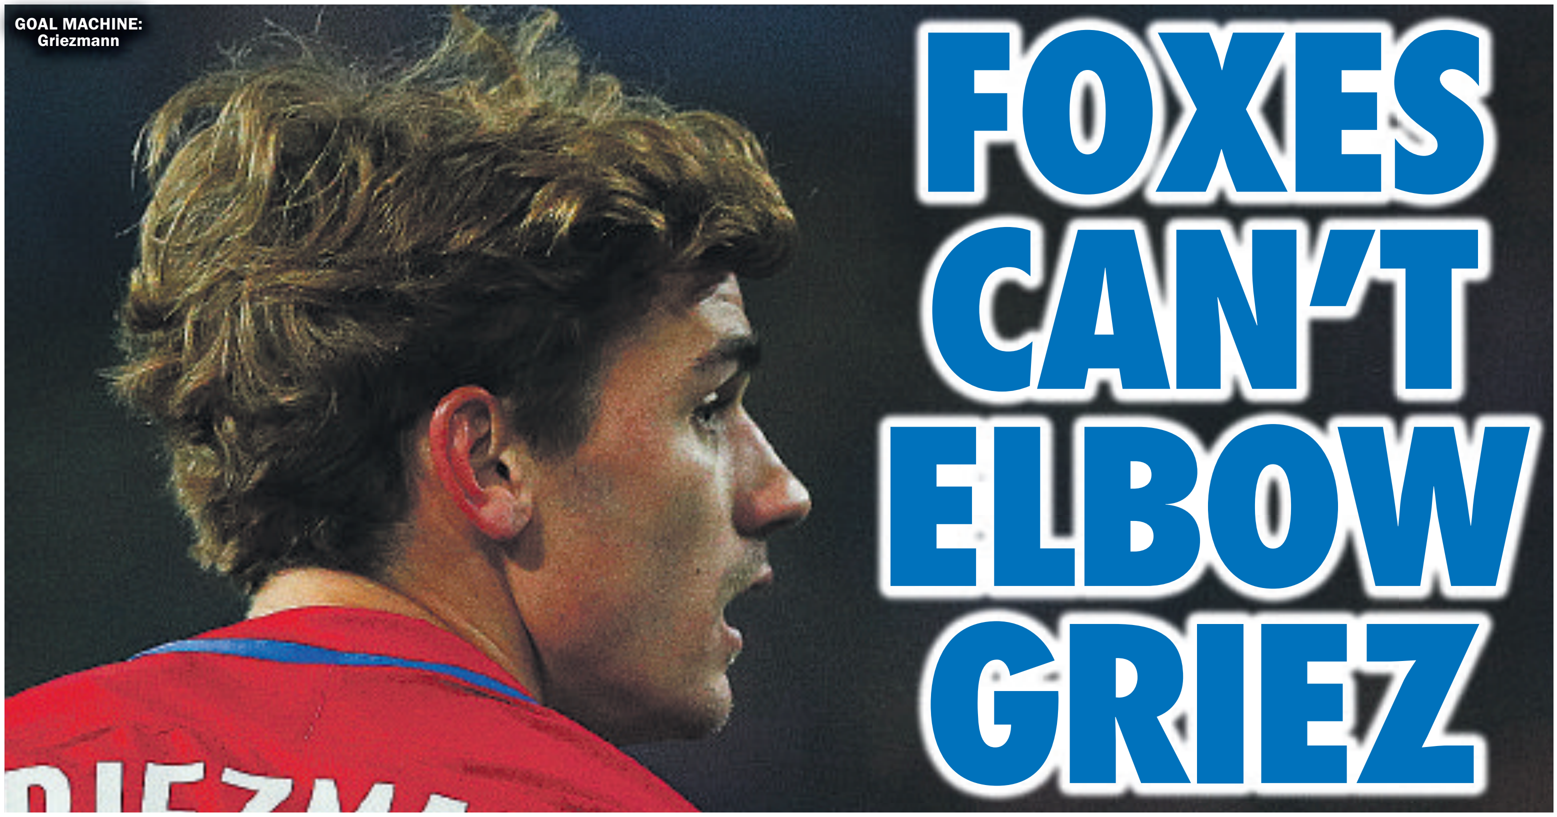
THE BOOKIE BASHER

LET MICK LIVESEY PUT YOU ON TO A SPORTS BETTING WINNER!



GOAL MACHINE: Griezmann

FOXES CAN'T ELBOW GRIEZ

ATL MADRID v LEICESTER

WE smashed up the bookies at the weekend, thanks to the treble of Ibrahimovic to score and Utd to win at 1/1, Liverpool to beat Stoke at 10/11 and Chelsea to sink Bournemouth at 8/13.

That ensured we got £61.68 back for every £10 we invested. We can't rest on our laurels, I don't know about you, but I'm hungry to take more off the bookies with the midweek action.

The nap must be Atletico Madrid against Premier League champions Leicester City.

Make no mistake about it Atletico are the real deal and while they may not be surrounded with all the glitz and glamour, they are without doubt one of the best teams in Europe. The Foxes fans will know that Atletico have ended two of their last three European adventures and the Spaniards are unbeaten against them in five previous meetings.

If you need any more convincing, Atletico have never ever lost at home to English opposition. The writing is on the wall for Leicester and their travelling support.

While Leicester have been resurgent of late, this looks a bridge too far, to put it bluntly there is a serious gulf in class and this could turn in to a rout.

I am a huge fan of Antoine Griezmann, the French forward is a class-act and he will surely have too many tricks up his sleeve for this Leicester defence.

Don't be fooled in to thinking Diego Simeone's men are a one man team. They have threats all over the place, including the former Premier League striker Fernando Torres.

One of Atletico's biggest attributes is their work ethic, mix class players with hard work and you don't have to be the brain of Britain to understand this is a lethal combination.

We can't go jumping on at 3/10, we need more value than that and I think I've found it.

Ladbrokes have gone 11/10 Griezmann to score and Atletico to win. I suggest we bite their hand off and lump on. If you wanted something even bigger, look at the 29/20 Coral have offered for Atletico to bang in three or more goals.

ANDERLECHT v MAN UTD

★ I wrote a big piece at the weekend about how poor Man United are at home, but away from home it is a different story.

I'm not going to repeat myself and bore the pants off you. Tomorrow the Red Devils travel to Belgium and face Anderlecht.

I expect them to record another impressive away victory. Jose Mourinho was given one simple task, bring back Champions League football back!

SWEDE DREAMS: Ibrahimovic

The board will have meant through their league position, that looks a big ask to me now.

It may not be mission failed though, Jose could sneak back to the big time through the back door by winning the Europa League. There is not that much standing in his way.

I can't see any valid excuse for them not winning this tournament from here.

On any given day the likes of Ibrahimovic and Pogba can be sensational and a thorn in the side of any team. My advice is lump on them to win the Europa at 7/5.

The final is in Stockholm on the 24th May. The stage could be set for Zlatan Ibrahimovic to shine back in his home country.

In terms of this match, get your wheelbarrow out of the garden shed, fill it with cash and wheel it to the bookies and stick the lot on at 1/1 for them to beat Anderlecht.

If you want something bigger, once again look at Ibrahimovic, he's now scored in 21 different matches for Utd this season. We can get 7/4 for Zlatan to score and Utd to win.

OTHER MIDWEEK PUNTS

I'm always nervous ruling out Real Madrid, so let's not bother. Surely they are worth a small bet away to Bayern Munich at 39/10.

They have the players that are capable of winning any football match and look to be a spot of value.

Talking of value, Ajax are far from the force of old and I'm inclined to have a few quid on Schalke at 2/1.

I don't think Dutch football is up to much at the moment, Ajax are flying and on a superb run, but who have they beat?

Celta Vig0 3/5 and Lyon 8/13, both look a couple of home bankers. It would be a shock to see them get turned over!

THE WINNING POST

Fire can burn em off

HUGP Palmer is planning big things with WALL OF FIRE (NAP) this season and could convert those lofty aspirations into realistic aims with a win at Nottingham today.

By BEN MORGAN

An improver over longer distances last year, he had the look of a horse who would benefit from another winter on his back, and with his trainer keen to talk him up, he went into many a notebook at the end of last season.

Quite often though, he had his supporters cursing him half way through his races due to his lazy style of racing which meant jockeys would always have to cajole him along but he always responded and managed to win in the most impressive, yet tightest, of fashions.

His run in Dubai this year would have blown any cobwebs away and I think the Dubai sunshine would have bought him along nicely and therefore I am expecting a bold showing today.

As long as it doesn't turn into a tactical affair I think he should go close.

Ryan Moore is a positive jockey booking for SMOKEY LANE who will need all the help he can get if he is to win off top weight.

This looks a tough little heat at Nottingham with a few of the main protagonists having their first run of the season but if David Evans' charge can bring his best form to the table then he should win.

His form last year ties in with all the top two-year-olds from last season which is a big positive and if he has grown and matured over the winter then he could be a speed ball to follow in handicaps this year.

The 6.45 at Kempton looks an intriguing race on paper as there are a couple of colts who could be anything. Top of my list is MONARCHS GLEN who looks potentially thrown in off a mark of 87 given he has top connections and solid form in the book.

Both two-year-old runs came at Goodwood towards the back end of last season, which is a trait of a Gosden hot pot, as he doesn't like to over face his horses too early into their careers.

You would like to think he would have trained on over the winter and at 9/4 he still offers plenty of value.

Batty boys can only get better says skipper

CRICKET

SURREY captain Gareth Batty says they can get better — despite skittling Warwickshire to win their first county championship game of the season.

The Bears were knocked over for 91 in their first innings as the Londoners recorded a comfortable victory.

Lancashire are the next team in their sights and Batty is looking for an improved performance.

DEMANDING: Gareth Batty

He said: "We wanted to jump out of the gates and start quickly.

"During the pre-season period we worked very hard, the boys worked hard in the gym, which allowed them to bowl the extra couple of overs in a spell that put the nail in the coffin.

"We reaped the rewards from that pre-season to make a very good start to the season, but the Warwickshire game was not a complete performance.

"The whole group contributed and were very good.

"Now we need to grow — and there will be more contributions like that."

Surrey were able to leave out England players Zafar Ansari and Stuart Meeker.

Batty has warned them to expect a fight to regain their places.

He said: "Stuart and Zafar missing out shows it's pretty difficult to get into the team.

"Anyone could miss out when it is right for the balance of the team.

"It is great for the season ahead to know that people can come in and perform well when they get their chance."

Verse still sets Gold standard for Beckett

RACING

RALPH Beckett is going for Gold with his star filly Simple Verse.

The 2015 St Leger winner will have her season framed around the Ascot Gold Cup at June's Royal meeting.

She struggled to hit the Group 1 heights last term but Beckett thinks it's far to early to be writing her off.

He admits the five-year-old is taking her time to reach peak fitness this season but will be back stronger than ever.

CONFIDENT: Beckett

He said: "She is back in and the idea was that she was going to go for the Dubai Gold Cup, but she just wasn't coming forward so we backed off her again.

"She is back cantering now.

"I have got a couple of options for where we can start.

"She won't be ready for the Sagaro at Ascot. She would be ready in time for the Henry II at Sandown, or maybe the Aston Park at the Lockinge meeting at Newbury.

"I'd say it would be one of those races for her to start with probably.

"She is a big, old matron now and is very easy to read nowadays. I'm happy with her at this stage. She will come when she is ready and that is the bottom line.

"We will be looking to Champions Day again, but I hope to get her ready for the Gold Cup as well.

"She's shown a profound liking for Ascot and that will be the route I will be taking and we will work our way towards it."

THE LATEST ON ENGLAND'S TO

CELEBRATING — AGAIN: Kane and Alli after sticking another in the back of the net for Spurs

DELE Alli has been urged to go all out for the Golden Boot — by one of his biggest rivals for it!

By JOHN ANTHONY

Harry Kane is trying to spur on his Tottenham teammate to finish as the Premier League's top scorer this season.

Even though it would deprive him of the award, the England No9 thinks it would be good for the Londoners to have two prolific scorers in the team.

With seven games left, Everton's Romelu Lukaku is setting the pace with 23 strikes. Kane is on 19 and Alli just three goals further back.

Kane said: "I told him to try to catch me. I have told him to try to get that 20-goal mark in the league, which is unbelievable for a midfielder.

"Dele is a fantastic player. You saw it last season and you're seeing it this season.

"He has added a lot more goals to his game this year which is important for him and the team.

"He's creative, he gets assists, he is fantastic on the ball. He is a great player who is only getting better and it is important he keeps working hard.

"If he does, he'll improve throughout his career.

"I said earlier in the season that if you want to be title contenders, you need two or three players getting double figures.

"If more than one player can reach 20 goals this season, it will really help the team.

"For Dele to get 16 league goals this season is amazing.

"Hopefully he can get to 20, I can get to 25 and we will see what happens. When you look at the eight league games I've missed this season due to injury, we've won five and drawn three.

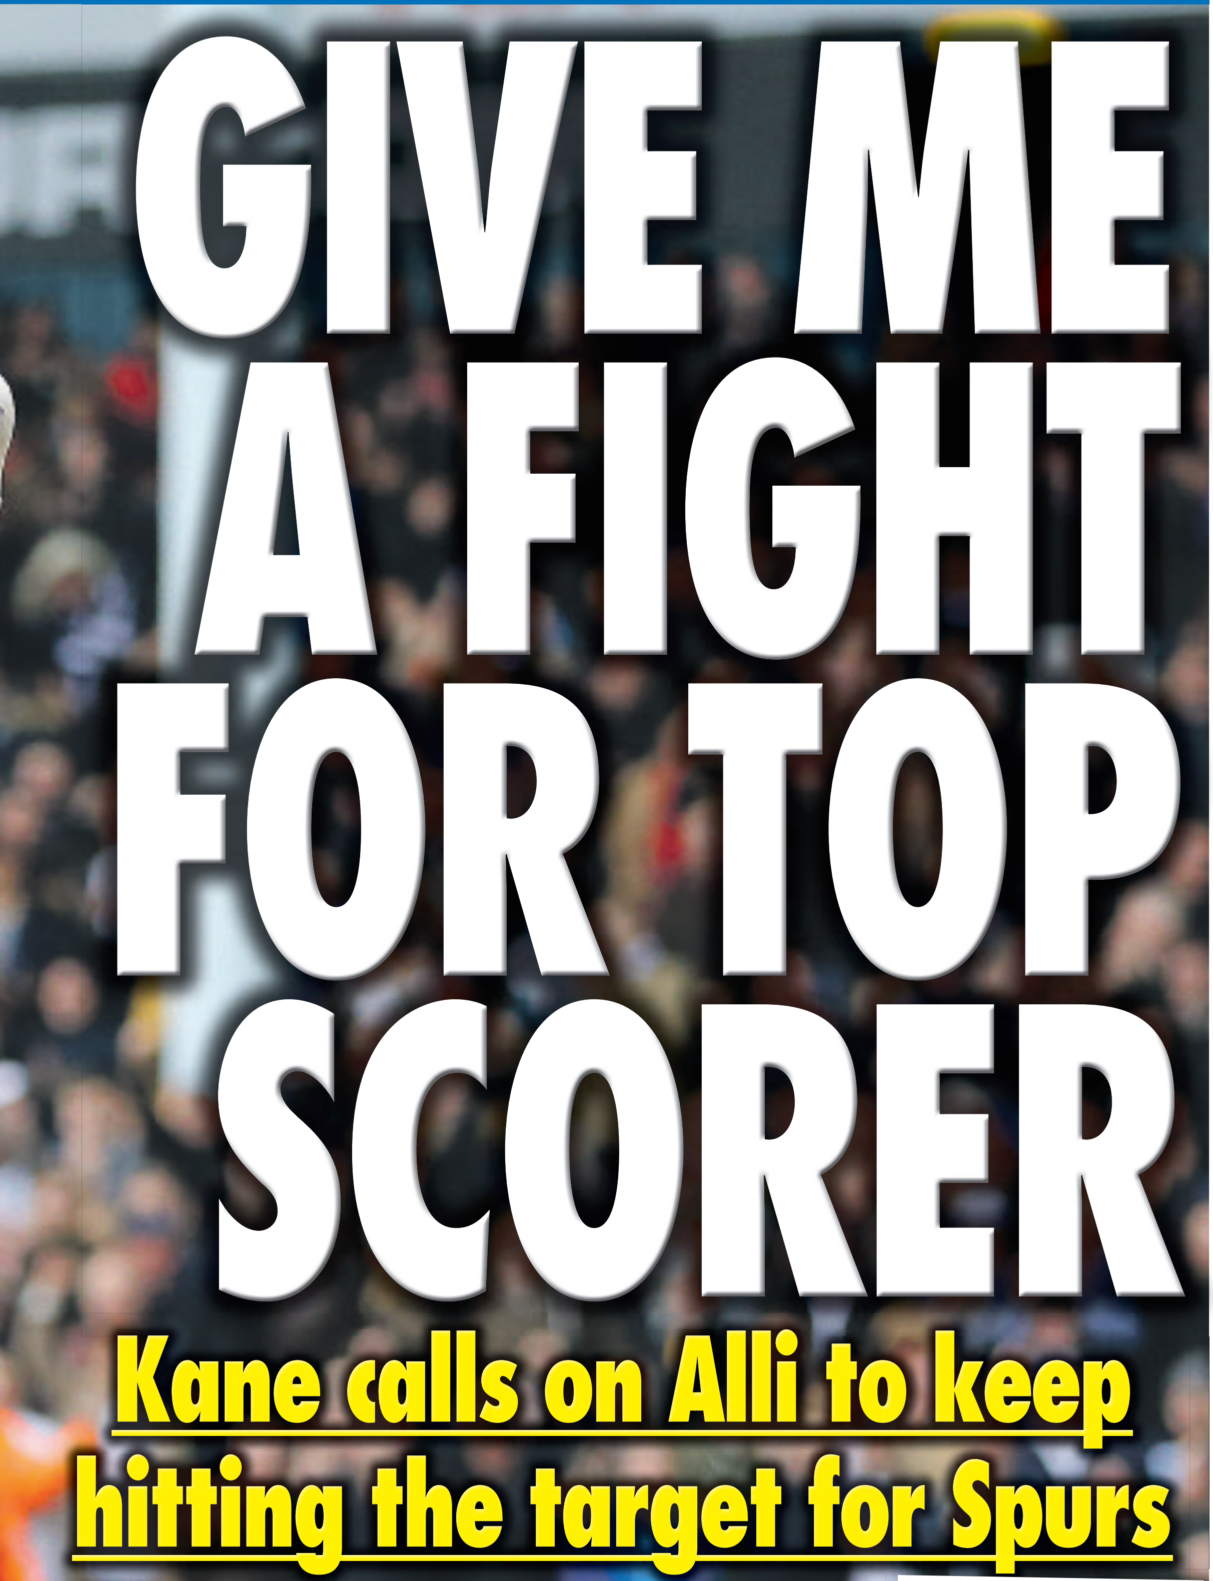
"So we're still scoring goals and still winning games, which shows the strength in our squad.

"Heung-min Son has been great, Dele is getting goals, Christian Eriksen has been in great form and I thought Vincent Janssen was brilliant against Watford.

"It is important we keep that up now until the end of the season and put as much pressure on Chelsea as we can.

Kane has come back from an ankle injury at least two

P TALENT AT WHITE HART LANE



GIVE ME A FIGHT FOR TOP SCORER

Kane calls on Alli to keep hitting the target for Spurs weeks ahead of schedule and is determined to play his full part in the run-in.

He came on a sub against Watford at the weekend even though he admits that full fitness is a little way off.

Great

Kane added: “The ankle is probably not 100 per cent, but it’s getting close.

“When I came back from injury last time for the Arsenal game it wasn’t 100 per cent.

“I’m pretty sure it will be 100 per cent for the Bournemouth game this Saturday.

“It felt great against Watford, though, and I didn’t feel any pain, even when I was tackled.

“That was part of the reason I wanted to play. I wanted to feel that contact. I want to get back to normal as soon as possible, so it was good to play 30 minutes and get that feeling back.”

Alli turned 21 yesterday but boss Mauricio Pochettino admits that he still behaves like a little kid sometimes.

The Argie has been harsh in public about him at times and knows that hasn’t always gone down too well.

Mo Po said: “I remember that people criticised me for different reasons. They kill me, kill him, but time has shown that we are right to support him, and to give love, because he is so young.

“This character is perfect for a player. When you feel that to lose on the pitch is like losing your life, those are the qualities we want in a player. He needs to improve, but he needs love.

“It’s not about punishing him. I always knew from day one that the relationship would be tough. It was friendly, lovely, but tough too. It’s like when you have a son. You love him, but sometimes you have to be tough.”

Michael on the right Rhodes to England call up

RUGBY UNION

SOUTH African born Michael Rhodes is desperate to break into England’s World Cup squad.

The Saracens flanker has been in cracking form for Saracens this season and has helped them win European Champions Cup and Premiership titles.

The 29-year-old moved to London from Cape Town Stormers only two years ago. But he qualifies for England in 12 months’ time under rugby union’s very lenient residency rules.

He wants to make the most of that to pull on a white shirt as soon as possible.

He said: “I have been here for nearly two years and am contracted with Sarries until the end of 2019 and anything above playing for the club would be amazing if it happened.

“England have a really good side at the moment but it would be wonderful if it did happen.

“I haven’t had any conversations about this because I only qualify in a year’s time and it would be a bit premature to have any discussion.”

The massive flanker could have one spanner thrown into the works though.

Rugby’s world governing body will vote later this summer on extending the qualifying period to five years.

That would scupper his chances of playing in the World Cup and he’d be 32 when eligible for any internationals.

Rhodes added: “I don’t know if Eddie Jones would be interested and so we will wait and see after three years and hopefully I will get that phone call.”

ROSE HOPE: Rhodes

Konta dreams of getting on top of Serena

TENNIS

GOLDEN girl Johanna Konta believes she has what it takes to become world number one.

The 25-year-old has been in sparkling form over the past year and claimed her first big title in the Miami Open earlier this month.

That catapulted her into the world’s top seven — some rise from 146 less than two years ago.

Now the 25-year-old believes a Grand Slam title and place at the top of female tennis is within her grasp.

She said: “The belief has been there since I was a little girl,” she said.

“I’d like to be the best player in the world but there’s a lot of work to be done between now and then.

“Everybody’s journey is different. I needed a little more time and a little more experience to accumulate the knowledge that I have and re-use it in my matches.

“I play smart tennis and calmer tennis I think.

“It just took time. On paper it looks like a quick turnaround but it’s been a long time coming.”

Konta has had a mental turnaround, going from a player who threw the towel in to one of the most determined on the circuit. She puts a lot of that down to new coach Wim Fisseett.

He also thinks Konta could go all the way — especially with Serena Williams nearing retirement.

Fissette said: “She has big ground strokes, not many weaknesses, and I also saw her as somebody who is very hard-working and very disciplined.

“I really believe she can win a Grand Slam.”

LOOKING UP: Konta

LATEST ON THE CRISIS AT ARSENAL

GIVE WENGER A CHANCE

Flamini backs former gaffer

TOP TEAM: Wenger and Flamini

ARSENAL legend Mathieu Flamini still believes Arsene Wenger is the right man to turn the club around.

That's despite the Gunners slipping further away from the top four thanks to their humiliating 3-0 defeat at Crystal Palace.

For many — or even most — Arsenal fans, that gutless display was the final straw and the huge protest at the final whistle said it all.

Loud boos and spitting fury was hurled at Wenger by a large mob of Gooners who waited for him to emerge from Selhurst Park on Monday night.

By ANDY MILLOM

That horrified Flamini, who came on as a sub for Palace but spent much of his career playing for the Frenchman.

He said: "It is painful to watch what is happening at the moment because I am still an Arsenal fan.

"I spent many years over there so my heart is white and red. But they have so much quality in the team and I really believe they can finish in the top four.

"It is just a matter of how they want it. I really hope they will make it because they deserve to be in the Champions League. It is such an amazing club."

Flamini thinks Wenger can still pull the season out of the fire and make it into the Champions League again.

He added: ""I had some amazing times with Arsène Wenger. He did so much for myself. I played for many years under him. I owe him a lot.

"But I understand also the frustration of the fans because they are such a big club and they want their team winning. It is not an easy situation.

"It is never an easy game to come and play at Palace. Arsenal conceded a goal and it was not easy to come back.

"The season is not finished. There are many games ahead. I believe they can do it. It is up to them."

PAY PAY: Hartson

Wages

Another former Gunner — John Hartson — thinks Wenger's hands have been tied by the club refusing to spend big money.

He said: "You look at Griezmann this summer, he's available but you know he's only going to go to Chelsea, Manchester United or Manchester City because he'll probably cost around the £80million mark and he'll go on to over £200,000-a-week wages.

"Arsenal don't pay that. They don't even entertain that.

"They don't go in for the top world-class players that become available.

"So I don't know where the Arsenal fans really think that the club should be.

"I don't think they should be challenging because they're not good enough to challenge."

BLUE MOVE: Sigurdsson

Toffees go for Gylfi as Barkley nears exit

EVERTON want Gylfi Sigurdsson to replace Ross Barkley.

And the Toffees will still sign the Swansea star even if their midfield maestro decides to stay at Goodison Park.

Barkley has been told by boss Ronald Koeman to sign the contract that is on the table — or be sold this summer.

It is growing more and more likely that he will be on his way as that deal has been on offer for several months now.

Koeman said: "We offer Ross a new contract and then two possibilities.

"One he signs the contract, and if he doesn't sign the contract then we need to sell the player — it's simple. It's not so difficult in my opinion."

Barkley has been in and out of the Everton side under the Dutchman and has fallen down the England pecking order too.

That could mean it's best for the club and player if he moves on at the end of the season.

Tottenham are said to be interested in taking Barkley to White Hart Lane.

Bike

Koeman is a major admirer of Sigurdsson and launched a bid for him last summer.

The 27-year-old decided to stay in south Wales then but will not want another relegation battle if they stay up.

And he will definitely be on his bike if the Swans slip into the Championship as seems increasing likely after a couple of poor results. They look to be in a fight with Hull to finish 17th.

The Iceland playmaker would cost around £25million — a figure that should be less than any fee brought in for Barkley.

And even if the Scouser decides to stay at his boyhood club, Koeman would be happy to have both players in his squad.

Everton face stiff competition from Newcastle with boss Rafa Benitez set to launch a major spending spree for their return to the Premier League.

It should be a busy summer at Goodison with Romelu Lukaku looking more and more likely to head back to Stamford Bridge when Diego Costa heads for the cash in China at the end of the season.

ADAMS STUNNED IN SPAIN

By PAUL THOMAS

GUNNERS legend Tony Adams admits he's shocked to have been given the chance to manage a La Liga side.

He has taken over at struggling Granada — the team, not the service station chain — aiming to pull off a "miracle".

They sit 19th in the table and seven points from safety.

A string of poor results led to former boss Lucas Alcaraz being shown the door.

Adams has been working as director of football upstairs at the club since before Christmas.

He has business links with Granada president John Jiang which explains his involvement.

But he realises it's a very different job moving into the dugout from being in the boardroom.

Adams said: "I've been here five months and I didn't see this coming.

"I want to thank Lucas Alcaraz and I wish him all the best.

"I will try to win every game and will try some things in training to liven up the team as we try to achieve a miracle."

Adams understands that he is just a stopgap measure and doesn't expect to have the job long-term. For that reason, he says he's free to give the players a boot up the backside.

"I'm very much an interim coach," he added.

"I'm here to give the players a kick up the arse and win games.

"I have 40 years of experience. Practice makes perfect, that is my way.

"I want us to be tough to beat, we've conceded too many goals. We will fight to win every game, that is what the president wants, it is what the fans want.

"Our focus right now is winning on Sunday. We need to be a tough unit. We have a job to do in the next seven games."

Adams' job isn't helped by Granada facing top-half teams in four of their next five games.

They have the small matter of taking on Real Madrid next month so they need to get off to a flying start against Celta Vigo at the weekend.

Spanish football expert Terry Gibson doesn't hold out much hope for Adams.

He said: "I look at Granada now, I think it's been coming for a while, I think they'll go down, and I don't see what is to be gained by this period of uncertainty at the end of the season.

"They need more than a new coach for the final eight games of the season."

BIG THREAT: Vardy will do his best

FOXES CHASE VARDY PARTY

But Atletico look too strong

LEICESTER will be looking to make it third time lucky when they travel to the Vicente Calderon to face Atletico in the first leg of their Champions League quarter-final.

The clubs have met twice before in Europe with the Spanish side winning both previous encounters in the 1961/62 Cup Winners' Cup and the 1997/8 UEFA Cup.

Make no mistake this is a massive examination of the Foxes with Atleti having won 16 of their 21 home Champions League games under Diego Simeone and having kept a clean sheet in 15 of their last 17 games at the cauldron that is the Calderon.

The hosts are 3/10 to take a first leg lead to the East Midlands and 9/10 to win the game to nil.

I can't see the Spanish side going gung-ho with the pace of Jamie Vardy a constant threat.

It is likely to be a tense, techy affair and do not the Foxes have four players Huth, Ndidi, Slimani and Vardy who will miss the second leg if they get yellow carded in the Spanish capital.

If the Foxes score it is very much game on but the bottom line is that Atletico are a much better side than the PL champions and a 2-0 home win is the recommendation at 19/4 with BetVictor.

In the other tie, Bayern Munich will entertain holders Real Madrid in what will be the 23rd European Cup/ Champions League game between the sides.

They have met ten times previously in the knock out stages and they have an identical record with both having progressed five times.

Score

Bayern have won their last 16 homes Champions League games but the last side to beat them was Real who won 4-0 at the Allianz Arena in April 2014.

The Bavarians scored ten times over the two legs in their last 16 tie with Arsenal but they are unlikely to find the Whites in as benevolent a mood.

The Bundesliga side are 4/5 at BetVictor to take a lead back to the Bernabeu for the second leg with a draw 3s and the Whites 7/2.

Both teams to score is 8/15 and that looks the safest option although the recommendation is for Real to win and both teams to score at 11/5.

Manchester United are 5/1 at BetVictor to reach the Champions League via a top four spot in the PL but 5/4 to win the Europa League ahead of their trip to Antwerp tomorrow in the Europa League quarterfinal first leg in Belgium.

The Purple and Whites have actually won their last two home games against United although a 3-1 win in November 1968 and a 2-1 win in October 2000 are unlikely to have too much bearing to the outcome of the tie.

United have kept more clean sheets than any other in the competition so far this season (six) and I expect them to keep it very tight and hope to hit the hosts on the break.

United are 19/20 to take a lead back to Old Trafford with the Belgium side 3s and the draw at 12/5.

United are 23/10 to win to nil, 1/6 to qualify and 9/1 to win 2-0 and it is the latter that is the recommendation.

One For Arthur did the column a 14/1 favour by winning Saturday's National and it was interesting to see he was only raised 8lbs by the handicapper.

He will bid to become the first horse since Red Rum to win back-to-back Nationals if he lines up next year and he was trimmed from 25/1 to 20/1 for a repeat success with BetVictor.

A number of people have asked what does One For Arthur mean – obviously something to do with a relative, or Eastenders or Arthur of Knights of the Round Table ilk.

All wrong as it actually has its roots in Ireland.

When a couple of the lads have been drinking Guinness all night and are already in the doghouse the shout is supposed to go up – are we going or shall we have One For Arthur (Guinness).

ALL SMILES: Butland is back in action

Butland back after painful 13 months out

ENGLAND goalie Jack Butland says he's ready to play again after 13 months on the sidelines.

The Stoke City stopper has come through his first game since suffering a stress fracture of his ankle playing for the Three Lions last March.

He looked to be making good progress and even appeared in pre-season. But he had setbacks in both August and December that added to his problems.

But he came through a full 90 minutes for Stoke Under-23s earlier this week and should be back — at least on the bench — for the Potters at the weekend.

Butland said: "Since pre-season, obviously I recovered from the first operation, which then later set me back but I was playing in pre-season.

"It's eight months since my last game, so pretty pleased.

"The feeling is just relief, dead pleased and happy to be back there. It's where I want to be, it's where I'm happiest.

Warming

"I always play with a smile on my face, I play better like that than being super focused, I like a bit of a smile and a swagger, but I was probably a little bit more than that and had a grin on my face for 90 minutes."

Butland got as far as warming up for a game in December before he broke down again with pain in his ankle.

Little did he think it would be four months before he would be in contention to play again.

It has been the first major blow in the 24-year-old's career. The friendly against Germany where he picked up the first injury was his fourth England cap — and he was well on his was to taking Joe Hart's place on a regular basis.

RIVAL: Joe Hart

Butland admits that this has been the toughest year of his career.

He said: "Recovering from the first operation wasn't that bad, it was the feeling like I was back and then the day before the first game of the season it all going pear shaped.

"And that three months leading into the last operation was tough.

"December onwards has been pretty smooth. It's all gone to plan.

"Since the last operation I knew what I needed to do and it's not been full steam ahead but it's gone as we would have expected and I'm finally back where I wanted to be."

DE GOER? United keeper De Gea

De Gea out for Anderlecht and maybe forever

Anderlecht v Manchester United

Thursday, 8.05pm, live on BT Sport 2

MANCHESTER United will be without David De Gea for the first leg of their Europa League semi-final against Anderlecht.

The Spanish stopper missed the weekend win over Sunderland with a hip problem and Sergio Romero will keep his place against the Belgians.

And there are growing rumours coming out of Old Trafford that Mourinho would consider making Romero his No1 keeper — and cashing in on De Gea.

He almost joined Real Madrid when Louis Van Gaal was United boss and nobody would be surprised if he headed back to Spain this summer.

Real have put it on record that they want to buy a world-class goalie — and it will be either De Gea or Chelsea's Thibaut Courtois.

Mourinho has tried to explain why his keeper is not playing at the moment.

He said: "He has a problem with his hip. When he dives he feels it a little bit.

"It's good for him to have a rest. It's good for Sergio Romero to play before Brussels. De Gea will probably be fit for Chelsea — yes, if he's in good condition."

Romero is still first choice between the sticks for Argentina and made some excellent saves against Sunderland.

SCHEMING: Mourinho

Many pundits are surprised that he has been happy to sit on the bench at Old Trafford when a host of top clubs would make him first choice.

Former United star Phil Neville is convinced that De Gea will be on his way this summer.

He thinks Mourinho is making excuses about a hip injury and is trying to give Romero a chance to establish himself in the team before the end of the season.

He said: "I'm still amazed at David De Gea.

"You know when Real Madrid likes a player, they tend to come and get him. So it'd be a worry, if I were a United fan."

WORRIED: Felipe Luis

Foxes ace giving Atletico full-back sleepless nights

By PAUL THOMAS

ATLETICO Madrid are running scared of Riyad Mahrez.

The Spaniards rate the Leicester forward so highly that they are making him public enemy number one when the teams clash in the Champions League tonight.

Leicester just want to come away from Madrid with a fighting chance in the second leg of their quarter-final at the King Power.

But Atletico fear they could be the ones chasing the game in seven days' time.

The Spaniards' full-back Filipe Luis thinks Mahrez is just as dangerous as his former Chelsea team-mate Eden Hazard.

The Brazil defender is getting set for a tough night at the Vicente Calderon against a player he hails as one of the world's best.

Luis said: "Marking Mahrez is going to be a big challenge for me.

"He is one of the best right wingers in the world right now, so it's not going to be easy.

"Especially because he plays 90 minutes on the right so I have to be really focused to stop him."

Luis failed to break through at Stamford Bridge but has become a regular for Atletico this season.

He played alongside Hazard during his year in London and can see plenty of similarities between the Belgian and Mahrez.

He said: "One of the best players I have ever played against and with is Eden Hazard.

"When I played with him at Chelsea he was brilliant. But last year I saw Mahrez doing something similar as Hazard did. If he wants, he can be the new Hazard. So it's going to be a big challenge for me."

Luis is also a big fan of Leicester and England striker Jamie Vardy.

Trying

While he acknowledges that he's a very different physical specimen to Diego Costa, he thinks the two hitmen have plenty in common.

He added: "He reminds me of Diego Costa, he goes for every single ball.

"He tries to win the long balls and he is also trying to go into the spaces between the lines and is also good in the air."

Leicester fly out to Madrid as real underdogs, but they have already shown that they deserve their place in the Champions League.

They will be without inspirational captain Wes Morgan — on the field at least.

The skipper has jetted off to Madrid with the rest of the team — and will give an emotional speech in the dressing room before kick-off.

The Jamaican centre-back has a nerve problem in his back that will keep him on the sidelines.

But boss Craig Shakespeare still wants him to play his part.

Shakey said: "Wes is travelling, mainly because I want to take a full squad.

"We're staying out there because of the quick turnaround with the Crystal Palace game.

Talk

"I have no problem with players being in the dressing room and speaking.

"As long as they don't interrupt me when I'm talking, that's fine.

"I expect whoever is not playing or whoever is not in the squad to be encouraging, and I actively encourage it for them to go around and talk and give little pointers because they might see something, even at half-time once I've finished my team talk.

"It's not new this season, it's been encouraged all season.

"I haven't invented it, it's just that Wes at this particular time has been injured but everyone has been encouraged to support their team-mates whether they are included or aren't included.

"Wes is more a leader by example than anything, but I think he's enjoyed the involvement."

Shakespeare thinks Morgan will be able to keep his — and the team's — spirits high despite not being able to influence the game where it really matters.

Injured

That's another reason why he wanted the skipper with the rest of the squad on such a big occasion in the club's history.

The Leicester boss added: "There's nothing worse when you're injured, you feel totally out of it.

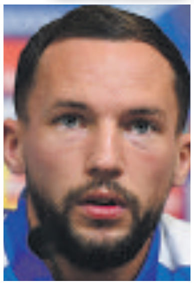
"I think naturally he's going to be disappointed but injuries come along for every player.

"He has been fortunate to be a regular starter over the years and he's not missed many games.

"This is new to him and he's had to prepare himself for that but mentally he's a strong character and can easily handle it.

"I'm really reluctant to put any time on it because I think nature has to take its course with a back.

"But it's really pleasing to see him back out there on the training pitch getting close to playing again."



UP FOR IT: Drinkwater

Danny's not here to make up numbers

LEICESTER'S players may be pinching themselves to be playing in the Champions League quarter-final — but they still expect to win it.

Danny Drinkwater admits he never expected to be in this position but he intends to make the most of it.

He said: "I've loved every moment of Champions League football.

"I never expected to win the title. But we have done. And again, we'll keep pushing to get as far as we can.

"Once you've played in the Champions League, you don't want to drop out of it. It's one of those moments in your footballing career that you just look forward to and you can definitely look back on and admire it."

And Drinkwater has been impressed with the way his Leicester team-mates have coped in the big time.

He added: "I think we have managed it quite well. It's our first season in the Champions League and I don't think many people would think that, which is a credit to the players and the staff.

Glory

"The further we can get in this competition the better for us, and we're kind of thriving at the minute.

"We're looking to get through this round definitely. We're not looking to draw the game or lose the game and hopefully nick something in the second leg.

"We're going to Madrid to get what we need, and hopefully we can push for a place in the semi-final."

Marc Albrighton is another Foxes star who doesn't want the journey to end just yet.

He said: "It's obviously brilliant to be in the quarter-finals but again, you're this close to glory and it'd be a shame for it to stop here.

"We're enjoying the moment at the minute, and I think that if we can carry on this journey and keep going, into the semi-finals and maybe further, then I think that's got to be our main aim.

"We don't want it to end here. It's a brilliant achievement, how far we've come, but we just want to keep it going and keep enjoying it."

DEJECTED: Wenger is a broken man on the bench as Palace batter his Arsenal flops

OUT ON HIS ARSE!

Wenger facing the end at Emirates

ARSENE Wenger's days as Arsenal boss are numbered.

By JOHN ANTHONY

That's after his falling out with Gunners chief executive Ivan Gazidis — and some terrible results.

Emirates insiders say there is NO contract offer on the table any longer for the Frenchman.

That's because it looks more and more likely that Arsenal will fail to qualify for next season's Champions League.

That was the golden ticket to Wenger being able to stay at the Emirates.

Now that's gone, relations with chief executive Gazidis are also said to be at an all-time low.

Wenger has faced new protests from the fans and calls to quit after Arsenal's pathetic 3-0 defeat at Crystal Palace.

He wants to stay for another season at least but it looks as though the tide has turned and he will step down after 20 years as Gunners boss.
